High School Principal's Office Made Ready

High School Principal Beman Ludwig and Dean of Boys John Callahan moved officially from the old high school to their new offices in the Senior High School Wednesday and, with the assistance of secretaries and other helpers, spent most of the day filing and putting things in place, preparatory to the school's opening Sept. 8. In picture at top, Principal Ludwig is assisted in library work by Susan Yates and Geraldine Floding. Photo at bottom left, Secretary Donna Durham watches M. H. Martin of Massillon install a sound system that can carry broadcasts over 120 speakers. ## Government Urges 'No Delay' By High Court

Legal Barriers To Integration May Be Stricken

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today urged the Supreme Court to permit no delay in integration in Little Rock schools.

In a brief filed with the court 2½ hours before an extraordinary special session called for a Litile Rock showdown, the government asked that all present legal barriers to immediate integration be struck down.

The Justice Department thus supported a petition by counsel for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. The NAACP has asked the court to remove two legal barriers to immediate resumption of integration in Little Rock's Central High School.

The two barriers the NAACP wants knocked down are:

The order by the U.S. District Court in Little Rock permitting a 2½-year delay in integration; and

A ruling by the Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis staying its order which would void the 2½-year delay. The stay by the Circuit Court was granted pending a decision by the Supreme Court.

The government's brief, filed by Solicitor General J. Lee Rankin, said the original decision of the Circuit Court knocking out the 2½-year delay was clearly correct.

Filed in Response

The government brief, filed in response to an invitation from the Supreme Court for the Justice Department to take part in the case, said the high court has full power to grant the relief asked by he NAACP. It said further that such relief should be granted.

Stressing that the only purpose of the stay granted by the Court of Appeals was to give the high court an opportunity to consider the ruling, the government urged that the whole Little Rock litigation be decided in one bundle.

The government brief said there was no likelihood that an appeal by the Little Rock School Board from the Court of Appeals basic ruing would be successful. It said the Supreme Court could decide this issue along with the petition to strike down the legal says.

Full Legal Merits

But if the court should not decide to consider the Little Rock case on its full legal merits, the government asked the court to reqquire the board to file its appeal immediately instead of waiting for 30 days as allowed by the Court of Appeals.

The government's argument went before the high court in an extraordinary setting—one of its rare special terms called to pass on issues of transcendent importance or pressing immediacy.

The time pressure stems from the fact that the Little Rock high school, where Negro sudents attended last year under guard of federal troops, opens Sept. 8.

There was no indication when the Supreme Court will act, but presumably it will be soon.

Scene of Riots

Just a year ago, Central High was the scene of anti-integration riots. Federal troops were used to enforce court-ordered integration. Now, a cloud of crisis again hangs over Little Rock.

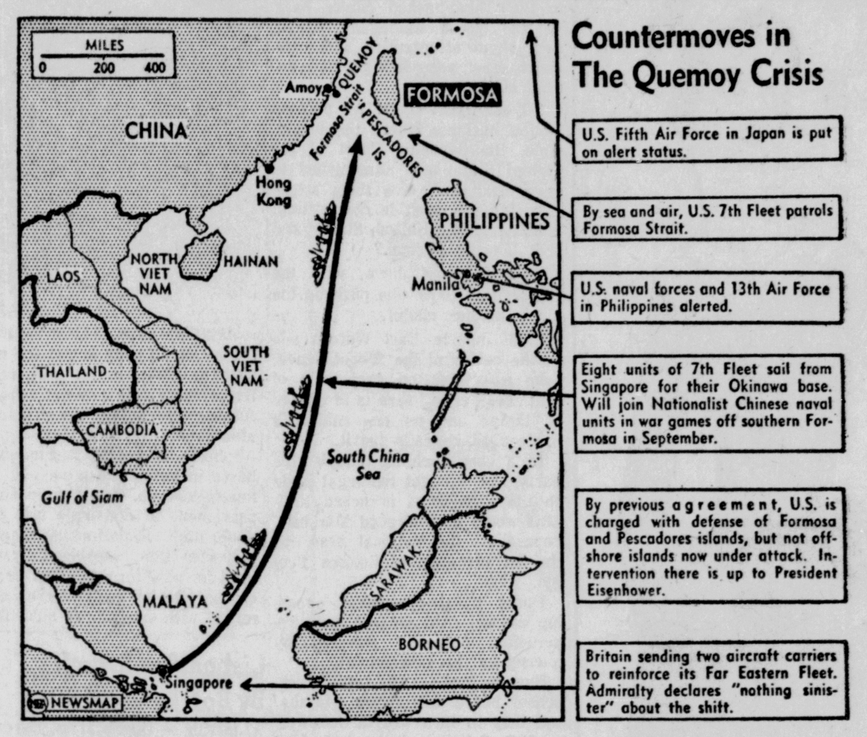

This is the first case the Supreme Court has accepted that gives it the oportunity to clarify what it meant when, in May 1955. it ordered desegregation of schools "with all deliberate speed."

Technically what is before the court now is a double-barreled petition filed by the NAACP.

It asks the Supreme Court to set aside an order of U.S. Dist. Judge Harry L. Lemley of Hope,

Fuselage Hole Provides Exit After Downing

Liner Falls Soon After Takeoff From Twin City Airport

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Sixty persons struggled out of a hole in a flaming Northwest Orient Airlines DC6B today after the four-engine plane struck a wire fence and plowed into a cornfield.

None of the 56 passengers or 4 crew members was killed. At least 49, including Rep. Don Magnuson (D-Wash), were taken to hospitals. Most suffered minor cuts or bruises. Several were treated at the scene and released.

Magnuson was not seriously hurt. He is no relation of Sen. Warren Magnuson (D-Wash).

Smoke filled the plane as passengers crawled through a hole torn in the fuselage where a wing broke off during the big plane's mile-long skid through a cornfield west of Wold-Chamberlain Field, the Minneapolis-St. Paul airport. It had just taken off, at 3:40 a.m. on a flight to Oregon and Washington.

Originated in Washington

The flight had originated in Washington with stops at Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit and Milwaukee.

"It's a miracle any of us got out alive, it seemed so bad," said Mrs. E. C. Wiegand, 48, Sandusky, Ohio, who was traveling with her husband and three children.

Flames consumed the airliner's interior after all aboard escaped. Rescue workers found men, women and children standing in the field, many of them dazed.

One crewman tossed a baby through the fuselage hole into the waiting arms of its mother.

An airlines spokesman said the plane was airborne when it clipped a fence rimming a construction project beyond the runway.

It bounced three times and slid along the ground for a mile,

3 Persons Hurt In Road Mishaps

Boy Reported 'Fair' After Bike Accident

Three persons were injured in two auto mishaps investigated by state highway patrolmen Wednesday.

Larry Esterly, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Esterly of Fairfield Ave. Ext., Columbiana, is in fair condition in City Hospital with injuries receeived in an accident on County Road 420, one-half mile south of Columbiana, at 5 p.m..

The boy as riding a bicycle when it collided at a blind intersection with a car operated by Albert Blosser, 29, of RD 2, Columbiana.

The boy received a possible concussion, bruises of the forehead, multiple abrasions of the head and legs and bruises of the lips.

A fifth grader, he was riding home after a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Esterly of the Oil Road, south of Columbiana.

Viola Wright, 23, and Nancy Martin. 21, both of Hammondsville, were hurt when the car in which they were riding was forced into a culvert by an unidentified auto on Rt. 39, five miles west of Wellsvillt, at 5:30 p.m.

The women were in a car driven by Mrs. Wright's husband, Ralph, 29.

Mrs. Wright received lacerations of the forehead, left leg and chest; Miss Martin sustained injuries to her left ankle.

The women were treated at East Liverpool City Hospital.

Final Passage Set Today

Arkansas Readies Segregation Bill

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.(AP) — The Arkansas Legislature set itself for quick final passage today of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' last-ditch anti-integration program.

It did so while glancing warily at the U.S. Supreme Court, meeting at the same time in Washington to consider the Little Rock integration case.

Final passage of the Faubus plan was a certainty even before the Legislature's members gathered Tuesday.

Only one voice rose to protest parts of the Key school-closing bill Wednesday. And the dissenter, Rep. Ray S. Smith Jr., 32, a Hot Springs attorney, said he favored the bill's objectives but did not want to give some future governor the sweeping power in the measure.

Keystone Bill

This Keystone bill called for closing any public school threatened with integration either by physical power or court orders.

Most other bills in the Faubus package aimed at supporting this measure.

The effect would be to close a public school facing forcible integration and lease it to an individual or group for orepation as a private school.

The Legislature also stamped approval of a series of bills by Arkansas Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, most of which aimed at curbing activities of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The Faubus legal package actually would permit a student displaced by a closing to attend any school of his choice, including church schools.

The practical effect, should Central High School in Little Rock be closed by the governor, would by that the students would have no other place to go. All public and private schools in the county be that the students would have the governor no choice except to lease Central High to a group or individual as a private school. The state would pay tuition to meet the school's expenses.

Juveniles Penalized For Auto Thefts

LISBON — Two Wellsville boys, 14 and 17, who ran away from home and stole two cars before they were apprehended at Benson, Md., were ordered to spend five days in detention at the county jail this morning by Juvenile Court Juge Louis Tobin. Each was fined $25.

The boys stole a Wellsville car Aug. 13, abandoned it at Bedford, Pa., where they stole another auto.

They were picked up the next day at Benson and turned over to juvenile authorities who returned them to this county Wednesday.

Judge Tobin placed the boys under an 8 p.m. curfew for the nex two months and a 10 p.m. curfew for the following two months. Neither is to drive or apply for a permit — the younger until he is 16 — except by permission of the court, and they are not to associate with each other.

Both were ordered to attend church regularly. They are not allowed to ride in any privately-owned vehicle except with their parents. They are to report each Saturday at East Liverpool to Juvenile Officer Chris Pusey.

SUSPECT ARRESTED

CELINA, Ohio (AP)— Artemio Callejos, 30, one of two men sought in the fatal shooting of Jesies Gomez, 33, at nearby Chattanooga Tuesday, was arrested Wednesday in Indianapolis, Mercer County Sheriff Bruce Barber reported. Also being sought is Greg Prado, 33. All are migrant tomato pickers.

Tax Evasion Brougt Out

Grand Jury Ends Gambling Inquiry

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)— A federal grand jury ended a 12-day gambling inquiry Wednesday night weary from squeezing enough information from a parade of big-time gamblers to indict eight men in a three-million-dollar betting syndicate.

The jury decided it had enough evidence about jangling telephones in a room over a Terre Haute, Ind., restaurant to prove the gambling operation owes federal taxes on $3,263,150 in bets.

The indictments were returned Monday, two days before the end of the long procession of 177 witnesses, including 42 stubborn ones who dodged answers under the Fifth Amendment.

Don A. Tabbert, the boyish-looking district attorney who celebrated his 30th birthday during the investigation. said the trial of eight men may bring out proof of a much bigger handle—10 million dollars in 10 weeks during last fall's football and World Series baseball season.

A Treasury agents' raid last Nov. 29 closed the third-story Terre Haute gambling headquarters.

The accused—aged 41 to 70—were as belligerent as some of the gambler witnesses during the inquiry, cursing and shoving reporters when they surrendered in a group and posted $10,000 bail bonds.

Tabbert hopes to have the case ready for trial in U. S. District Court in Terre Haute in November. Arraignment was set for Sept. 4.

Clientele of Bettors

The eight are no Johnny-comelately figures in gambling. Chicago gamblers Leo Shaffer, 58, and Jules Horwick, 54, started in 1951 to build op a clientele of bettors who coud afford to wager as much as $100,000 on a big football Saturday.

Then Congress passed a law requiring a $50 stamp for bookies and levying a 10 per cent tax on all bets. Shaffer and Horwick moved to Winnipeg, where they operated until Cana-

Dr. Williams Preaches On 'Wealth of Church'

Dr. Walter R. Williams of Damascus Wednesday at 11 a.m. presented his first sermon in the Expository Hour series scheduled every morning of the six-day Yearly Meeting of Friends at Damascus.

A large crowd heard Dr. Williams preach on the topic, "The Wealth of the Church."

Dr. Williams told of the hope which lies before the people who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, the riches of God's inheritance, and the greatness of God's Power.

The Rev. Robert Hess, missionary on furlough from India, delivered his second sermon Wednesday evening. His series of talks deals with the study of the return of the Jews from captivity and the rebuilding of the Temple.

Text of the Rev. Hess' sermon was based on Ezra 3:3, "And they set the Altar on His bases." The significance of this act of the Jews upon their return to Canaan was the show of allegiance to their living Lord with the altar serving as a place of communion, the source of strength and where obedience was primarily tested, the Rev. Hess said.

The business meeting of the Christian Endeavor group is scheduled for 3:45 this afternoon in the Meeting House when the young people will elect new officers.

Delegates and representatives of 90 churches in seven states are attending the meeting.

U.S., Nationalists Conduct Air Exercises

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Nationalist and U.S. planes conducted joint air defense exercises today over the coast of Formosa as Red Chinese batteries continued to pound the Nationalist-held islands just off the coast of mainland China.

The announcement by the U.S.-Formosan command gave no details of the joint air maneuvers. But it aboviously was designed to point up American backing for the Nationalists in hopes it would deter the Red Chinese from trying an invasion of the offshore islands.

As the Communist artillery attack on the Quemoy Island group pounded through its sixth day, Nationalist intelligence sources reported Red land and sea movements they interpreted as the prelude to an invasion attempt.

A Defense Ministry spokesman said the Reds battered Quemoy with more than 16.000 shells in the 19 hours before dawn and that sporadic shelling continued through the daylight hours.

The fact that the Reds have expeced more than 100,000 pounds of shells added weight to the belief that an invasion attempt is imminent.

Rackets Group Probes Circuses

Committee Seeks Teamsters Link

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Rackets Committee probers turn to the circus and the carnival world today in their efforts to show the Teamsters Union has strewn a trail of violence in labor dealings.

The committee hopes to find out why several circuses closed down after a bitter 1956 dispute with the Teamsters. Most others, including the big Ringling Brohers, Barnum & Bailey Circus, discarded the canvas big top to save labor costs.

Officials of some eight circuses and carnivals were summoned to testify before the committee, which has been unfolding a story of widespread corruption and terrorism in Teamster affairs.

The committee received vague testimony several days ago telling of Teamster strong-arm men pulling down the stands at one circus, killing or injuring some persons. However, there was no disclosure whert or when such an incident occurred.

The current phase of the hearings, concerned primarily with Teamster activities in the St.Louis area, will reach a climax Friday when Harold Gibbons, a union vice president, is called for questioning. Gibbons holds sway over Teamster affairs in the St.Louis area and his name has been linked with violence charges.

Among other things, Gibbons will be asked about his relations with his 3300-pound aide, Robert (Barney) Baker, who suffered a heart attack Wednesday shortly before he was to have given new testimony. Baker, who was stricken in his hotel room, had been summoned for further questioning about alleged payoffs to maintain labor peace.

Baker, rushed to a Washington hospital, remained on the critical list today.

Quaker Band Fund Nears $5,000 Goal

The Quaker City Band's fund goal has almost been reached, Norman Eckfeld, band president, reported today.

He said yesterday's receipts have not been tabulated, but the total will be "very close" to the quota of $5,000 required to finance the band's trip to the American Legion convention at Chicago Friday to Tuesday.

The band held its final rehearsal at home Wednesday night. Practice has been scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Saturday at Chicago, preceding the Legion's national band competition in the afternoon, Mr. Eckfeld said.

Band members Bill Schaeffer and John Miller left this morning for Chicago in a truck containing the instruments and uniforms to make preparations for the band's arrival tomorrow.

The main group of musicians will depart in a chartered bus Friday morning at 8 from the American Legion Home.

Passenger Recalls Terror Of Air Crash

CLEVELAND (AP)—"I can't understand how no one was killed."

Those were the words of Dr. E. C. Wiegand, 46-year-old Sandusky, Ohio, osteopathic surgeon who was aboard the Northwest Orient Airlines plane that crashed today near the Minneapolis-St. Paul Airport.

Dr. Wiegand said he and his family were sitting in the "family compartment" forward in the plane.

"Maybe the plane was 60 feet or so off the ground when, all of a sudden, down it came. It landed on its belly, then tipped over on the left side" he told a Cleveland News reporter in a telephone interview.

Fire broke out immediately in the after part of the plane, Dr. Wiegand said. "I was sitting by an escape hatch. I managed to open it and helped my family get out."

The doctor and his wife, Eleanor, 46, and their three children, Linda, 13, Steve, 11 and Nancy 9 were en route to Alaska. None of them suffered "so much as a bump" said Dr. Weigand, adding: "Thank God for that."

He said the fire filled the cabin quickly and 'I don't know how many people I helped out." He helped treat some of the injured.

The Wiegands boarded the plane in Detroit. He as bound for a 3½-week Caribou hunting expedition. Since his rifle and clothing apparently were destroyed Wiegand was unsure what he would do now.

Emery Selymes, of 11508 Lake Ave., Cleveland, also was aboard the plane. He told an aunt, Mrs. I. S. Endrey, in a telephone call here he was asleep when the plane crashed and "I don't know what happened."

Supreme Court Is Judicial Palace

WASHINGTON (AP) — Stepping into the U.S. Supreme Court chamber is much like entering a cathedral during a moment of quiet prayer.

It's an almost silent marble sanctuary, exuding dignity and solemnity.

In this setting the black-robed justices today consider the Little Rock school integration case and its possibly far-reaching effects on racial problems.

What would you see if you were among the few lucky ones to get into the chamber for today's historic special session?

Through partly drawn dark red yellow tinted marble, specially cut first spots 24 huge columns of yellow tinted marble, specialy cut from a quarry in Itay.

The columns, around the four walls of the chamber, support marble panels carved with figures depicting such ideas as "Majesty of the Law" and "Defense of Human Rights."

Also depicted are lawgivers down the ages, including Moses, Solomon, King John, Blackstone and America's John Marshall.

A yellow-tinted ceiling, richly decorated with 22-carat gold leaf, reflects gentle light on ivory vein marble walls that are quarried in Spain. More red velour drapes decorate sections of the walls.

Thick, dark red carpet covers most of the floor, which is of salmon red marble from Africa.

The air-conditioned chamber is 82 by 91 feet from wall to wall, with a 44-foot ceiling.

At noon on court days, attendants part the east wall drapes in three places and three justices file through each opening. They move to their high-backed chairs back of the great mahogany bench, then stand at attention while the court crier goes hrough this ancient chant:

"Oyez! Oyez! Oyez! All persons having business before the honorable, the Supreme Court of the United States are admonished to draw near and give their attention, for the court is now sitting. God save the United States and this honorable cour."

Then they sit down, with the aid of page boys who push up the black leather chairs.

Chief Justice Earl Warren sits at the center of the 29-foot bench, four associates on each side of him The "chief" then is in charge of things and no one makes a move until he calls for it.

In a case such as today's, the party who brought the legal issue to the high court is heard first. This would be Thurgood Marshall, counsel for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

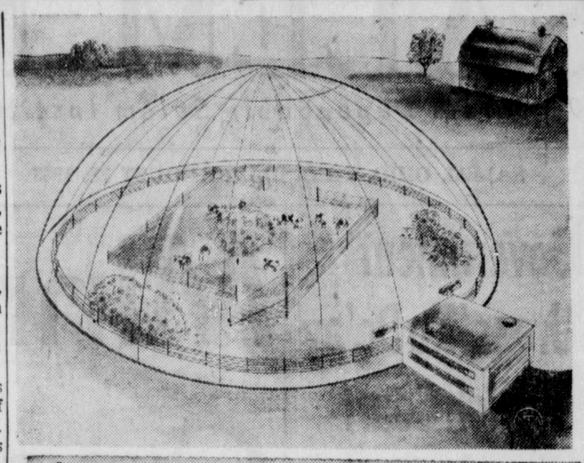

Under usual procedure, opposing counsel then present their arguments, normally followed by counsel for the government.

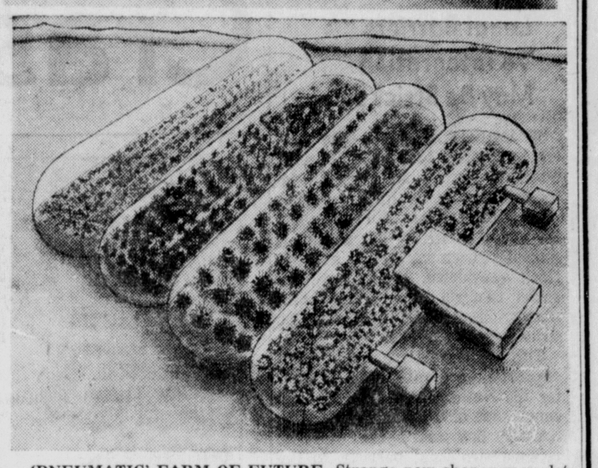

Thus counsel for the Little Rock school board will follow Marsha, and they in turn will be followed by U.S. Solicitor General J. Lee Rankin.

If any of the attorneys ask a few minutes for rebuttal, the court usually grants the request.

After hearing arguments in a case, the court usually takes it under consideration at a later meeting in a closed conference room. There, a vote is taken and one of the justices is assigned the job of writing the majority opinion. Dissenters can write as they please, without assignment.

Decisions generally are announced on Mondays when the court is in its regular term. However, there is nothing to bar the anouncement of a decision at any time, in regular or special terms.

'PNEUMATIC' FARM OF FUTURE. Strange new shapes may dot the nation's farms in not too many years. Air-supported structures, such as those above, may make every farm a greenhouse, with temperature and climatic conditions controlled in plastic "bubbles." Although the idea of air structures was suggested in England shortly after World War I, it found its first practical application in radomes —spheres of coated fabric which protect radar antennae at U.S. bases in harsh areas such as the far north. E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co. engineers predict that advances in design and improvement in materials will provide an almost unlimited field of application. Experiments suggest that tough, lightweight "Mylar" polyester film, supported by low pressure air blowers, could be used for structures 200 feet or more in diameter, sufficient to cover entire farm buildings or crop and animal areas. Other uses could be served with sausagelike structures, used together or singly.

Lisbon Boy Struck By Bottle Recovering

LISBON — Duane Metz, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Metz of Pleasant Heights, is recovering satisfactorily in Youngstown South Side Hospital following and two and one-half hour operation Tuesday on his head.

Duane was injured Monday while playing in Mill Site Creek close to Pritchard Ave. bridge when a high school student returning from band practice tossed an empty pop bottle out of a car.

The Metz family said the bottle hit Duane on the forehead and splintered the bone, pressing part of it against the brain.

He is expected to recover completely and already wants to come home. He is a fifth grader at McKinley School.

Hours Announced For Columbiana Schools

COLUMBIANA — School hours have been announced by Supt. D. W. Bailey in preparation for opening of the fall term next Wednesday.

The new year starts with a full day of classes. The tardy bell will ring at 8:45 a.m. at the high school building for students in the fifth through eighth grades. The bell sounds at 9 a.m. at Dixon elementary school. Classes are dismissed for the day at 3:35 p.m. at the high school building and at 3:15 p.m. at Dixon.

Raymond Cole, elementary principal, said the school bus schedule has been completed with one exception The kindergarten pickup routes cannot be definitely set until next Wednesday afternoon, he said. He requests that all kindergarten children be brought in on Wednesday morning for complete registration and assignment.

An all-day teachers' meeting is set for Tuesday.

REV. H. J. Scheidemantle, pastor, said the First Presbyterian Church will return this weekend to its regular schedult of services. The congregation has experimented with early services for three weeks. Rgular hours call for Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. and worship services at 10:45 a.m.

An estimated 700 persons watched the free "Aquacade" staged Tuesday night at Firestone Park swimming pool. Held after dark for better lighting effects, the show ended on the chilly side with the performers rushing for the dressing rooms after the finale.

SAFETY SIGNS POSTED

CLEVELAND (AP) — Fatal-free Memorial Day and July 4th holidays on the Ohio Turnpike are spurring the Turnpike Commission to match that safety record in the upcoming Labor Day weekend. New signs proclaiming "Make It a Safe Holiday Trip" have been posted and the maximum number of patrol cars have been assigned for the five-day period Friday to Tuesday.

East Liverpool Man Loses Driving Rights

LISBON — John C. Foreman, 27, of East Liverpool, was found to be an habitual traffic law violator Tuesday at a hearing before Judge Raymond buzzard in Common Pleas Court.

Judge Buzzard suspended Foreman's license or permit for the remainder of the term, not exceeding one year.

Cited under Ohio's 12-point law, Foreman had a record of two convictions in East Liverpool Municipal Court—driving while intoxicated June 23, and driving while his permit was under suspenson Aug. 6. Both are six-point offenses.

85th Congress Moderately Progressive, Uneasy Group

By JAMES MARLOW
Associaed Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 85th Congress was born in crisis and ended uneasy. History will probably say this Congress, like President Eisenhower, was moderately progressive.

The 85th, run by Democrats, had a good record of performance. It worked well with republican Eisenhower. But it had snocks, the realization the Soviet Union was ahead in missiles; a Mideast crisis; a recession.

By the time Congress ended its second session Sunday some Democrats had become uneasy about the wisdom and direction of American foreign policy, Eisenhower's leadership, and the state of American defenses.

But the Democrats as a party provided no leadership basically different from Eisenhower's on foreign or domestic matters. They gave him pretty much what he asked and backed him up when he got in trouble, as in the Mideast.

This Congress was elected in November 1956, during one of the most precarious weeks since World War II.

The British and French, breaking with the United States, had invaded Egypt. The Soviets threatened war if they didn't get out, which they did. And the Soviets bloodily crushed the Hungarian revolt.

In those two years, Soviet influence in the Middle East has risen but American influence hit rock bottom.

Just before Congress quit this year Iraq pulled away from the West and Eisenhower sent troops into Lebanon to save it, an action which angered Arab, neutrals and some American friends.

At the time this Congress took office in January 1957 economists were fearing inflation, not recession. Inflation continued but recession hit. Neither Eisenhower nor the Democrats took any stringent action against it.

They followed a cautious road of small repairs here and there, in the hope i twould go away. ing. Once more the economists are concerned about inflation, for living costs continue up.

When this Congress first moved into the Capitol in January 1957, there was still the old complacency that we had always been ahead of the Soviets and would continue that way.

This myth was shattered in the fall of 1957 when the Soviets let loose their first Sputnik. Congress returned for its final session in 1958 excited, disturbed, chastened.

It voted quickly for missile development. But somehow concern about Soviet strides in this field seemed to melt a bit as Congress later in the year began worrying about recession.

As it heads home, the 85th Congress is much less cocky about the Soviet Union, has its fingers crossed about the economy, and has no reason to believe American foreign policy will do better than it's done in the past.

Lisbon Rotary Club Hears Frank O'Hanlon

LISBON — The Nov general election will cost Columbiana County about $81,000, Election Board Clerk Frank R. O'Hanlon told Rotarians here Tuesday during a dinner speech at the Wick Hotel.

Clerk of the board the past 21 years and a member for 40, O'Hanlon outlined the duties of his office and of the board. He was introduced by program chairman William McKenna.

President William Haifley announced Rotary's challenge to out sell other service club's peddling football programs at home games this season.

Moral Suasion and the Teamsters

ALF-CIO has its ethical practices committee. United Auto Workers has authorized its president, Walter Reuther, to set up a public review board. The Teamsters Union now says it will have a citizens commission.

This commission, with former Ohio Sen. George H. Bender as its chairman, will do for the Teamsters, according to the union's president James R. Hoffa, what the UAW board and the AFL-CIO committe will do for their sponsors.

It will provide a conscience for the executive leadership of the union. It will reassure the public by its silence that it knows of nothing which should make it raise its voice; or, if its voice is raised, it will reassure the public that the union is subject to some dictate higher than that of expediency.

This can be done, of course, only if the public continues to believe absolutely in the integrity of the people who undertake this significant role in the labor movement. This is as true of the union officials on the AFL-CIO ethical practices committee as it is of the unaffiliated citizens who have consented to serve the Auto Workers and Teamsters. They bear a heavy responsibility.

A curious condition has developed in unionism — a kind of double standard that gives legal sanction to situations that could not command moral sanction. This was refered to pointedly by last Sunday's "Meet The Press" guest Joseph E. Curran, president of the National Maritime Union.

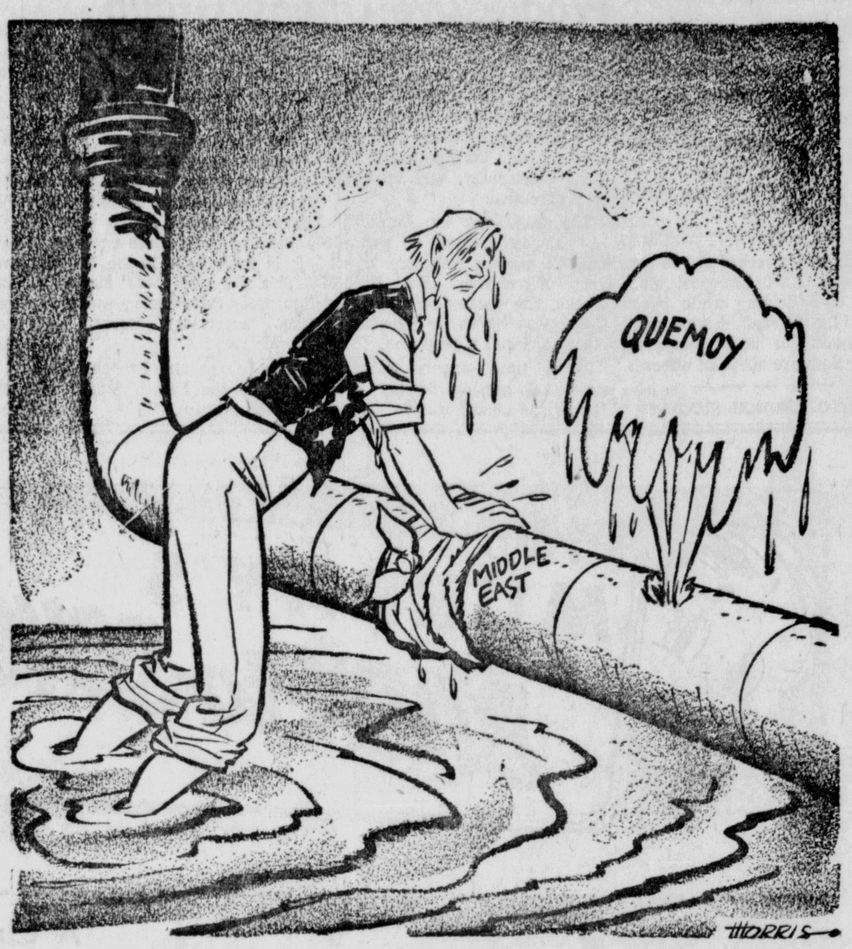

Curran is a member of the AFL-CIO ethical practices committee, which has chastised Teamsters president Hoffa for his practices. Yet, as head of the Maritime Union, Curran must do business with Hoffa and his union on good terms.

Curran insisted that he has no choice;that Hoffa's union exists; that Hoffa exists;that Hoffa can neither be wished out of existence nor wafted out of existence by any due process of law. He might have added that there is no present likelihood that Hoffa can be affected by future legislation, either, because Congress failed to pass the only bill before it that would have increased his financial responsibility and guaranteed democratc elections.

It is as though unions were expected to and in turn were expecting to do for themselves what Congress and the state legislatures did not know how to do; namely, to convince the public that they deserve the moral sanction that ordinarily goes with legal sanction.

No one can be sure how this is going to turn out, least of all the handful of citizens who have consented to serve on the "conscience" boards and committees. It would seem that the proof would await the first public promptings of conscience, followed by a prompt about-face. In no other way can the public ever be sure that the "still, small voice of conscience" is being heard.

Wealth Once a Handicap to Political Candidate

There was a time in American politics when a rich man found his wealth a handicap to candidacy for high office. That isn't true today. In New York State, for example, Nelson A. Rockefeller has won the Republican nomination for governor and will oppose Gov. Averell Harriman, Democrat. Both come from wealthy families.

David Lawrence

Oddly enough, the advantages of the rich man as a candidate are now pointed to as being distinctly of benefit to the electorate.

This follows the reasoning of President Theodore Roosevelt, who once wrote a magazine article in which he said that, unless a man had accumulated an estate of $100,000 — so that his income would make him independent of his salary—he would not make as succesful a public servant as one who possessed that particular advantage.

The theory is that the rich man will resist temptations in the performance of his public office, because he has already accumulated enough wealth that he doesn't have to think of what he will do once he leaves office.

Hence his point of view is likely to be more closely attuned to the public welfare.

Men of wealth have often entered into politics but in recent years the men of riches in public life have been largely those who have inherited wealth.

There is no doubt that money-making itself has no lure for Mr. Rockefeller or for Gov. Harriman. They find a greater satisfaction in endeavoring to perform a public service for their fellow men.

MORE INTERESTING perhaps than the wealth of these two gubernatorial candidates is their ancestry. Gov. Harriman's father E. H. Harriman, was the railroad king of America and a national and international figure in finance in the 1890's and early 1900's.

Although he never ran for or held public office, he was highly influential in the Republican party during the administrations of McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt. He openly boasted that he could buy a sufficiet number of senators and congressmen or state legislators to protect his interests, and, when necessary, could buy the judiciary.

Mr. Harriman was among those later to be denounced by President Roosevelt as "malefactors of great wealth." In 1904, even though Mr. Harriman mistrusttd Mr. Roosevelt as the party nominee, the railroad magnate contributed heavily to the Republican presidential campaign. In an effort to win Mr. Harriman's financial support, Mr. Roosevtlt wrote a letter that became public in a sensation of those days.

In it the President had, in effect, asked Mr. Harriman to forget the attacks of the past because, as he said to Mr. Harriman, "You and I are practical men."

The grandfather of Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller on his mother's side was the noted senator from Rhode Island, Nelson Aldrich, longtime Republican leader and "boss" of the Senate.

He was conspicuous as sponsor of monetary legislation, and headed the national monetary commission whose report to Congress in 1912 was later embodied in modified form in a law which established the present Federal Reserve System.

Sen. Aldrich was one of the ablest congressional leaders in history, roundly dnounced by the "progressive" Republicans as a "tyrant" and "despot" for his tactics in getting legislation through the Senate.

On his father's side, Nelson Rockefeller's grandfather amassed—through an oil monopoly later broken up under the anti-trist laws—perhaps the largest fortune of those times. Nearly all of it was subsequently distributed in one form or another to charity and philanthropic foundations by Nelson's father, John D. Rockefeller Jr.

-:-

THE GRANDSON of Sen. Aldrich inherited a natural interest in public affairs. Only 50 years old, Mr. Rockefeller has spent most of his adult years in public service. He was co-ordinator of inter - American affairs under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and then was appointed assistant secretary of state in charge of Latin-American affairs.

He served under President Truman as chairman of the advisory board on the point four program.

In the Eisenhower administration, he has been under-secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, and special assistant to the President on foreign policy. He has served also on commissions to study reorganization of the government and of the Defense Department.

Gov. Harriman left the Republican party in 1928 and joined the New Deal in 1934 as an administrative officer of NRA. He went on to serve presidents Roosevelt and Truman as ambassador to Great Britain, ambassador to the Soviet Union, secretary of commerce, foreign policy adviser and foreign aid director.

Certainly this campaign will be watched by the nation not only because New York is the country's most populous state, but because of the well known personalities who are the top contenders.

Wealth by itself will have in the future less and less bearing on the choice of candidates for public office.

Integrity is all-important, irrespective of riches. People are mostly interested in the point of view of the candidates and what they will do if elected.

The New York Herald Tribune

Labor Reform a Political Issue

President Eisenhower's labor reform request last January compared with the watered-down bill that failed to pass in the Democratic controlled 85th Congress makes it clear why labor reform will be a political issue in the 1958 congressional campaign.

It will be a political issue again in the presidential campaign two years from now and will continue to be an issue until voters are satisfied with the way politicians have disposed of it.

Nothing could be more far-fetched than the accusation that Republicans in the 85th Congress have made it an issue. They have reason to be thankful it finally has come out from under wraps, but Democrats have put labor reform on the political stump for the next few years by their obvious coddling of the leaders of labor.

"Clearing it with Sidney (Hillman)" was the password for the New Deal in 1940.The New Deal was geared to the labor movement before, during and after the war. All the now-well-publicized abuses of the movement have been made possible and condoned by laws that originated during the ascendancy of the Democratic party.

Thus, it is no surprise that a Democratic Congress in 1958 showed no interest in labor reform legislation, other than a slap-on-the wrist proposal that would have had no more effect on basic reform than a mosquito bite has on an elephant.

Last January, President Eisenhower proposed a drastic drive on corruption in unions. He said voluntary reform was out of the question. He recommended a set of laws that would have made unions as responsible for straight dealing under the law as all other organizations of similar importance. He proposed that they be handled in the same way they would be handled if they had to make out income tax returns on their multi-million-dollar operations.

This program was scuttled without trace. Democratic politicians with obligations to union bosses did not even want to think about it. That is why it is ctrtain to be a political issue this year — and until it is settled. Democrats have become the political sponsors of the union movement in all its aspects — good and bad. They have turned down a chance to do something about the bad aspects.

Did they think for a minute it wouldn't be a political issue if they refused to admit it should be?

The Best of Luck!

What has transpired in the past several weeks of fund raising to help the American Legion Quaker City Band defend its national championship at Chicago this weekend is more than a financial underwriting. It is a demonstration of pride and appreciation by the people of Salem in their National Champions.

As the bandsmen head for Chicago, tense but eager for another title competition, their hearts can't help but quicken as they know the folks at home are just mighty proud of them and are confident that the band will add another notch in its long list of accomplishments. The best of luck!

Community Service

The Salem scholarship Association has granted financial assistance to eight more worthy high school graduates who have found that tuition problems can be as tough as textbook assignments after several years along the road toward a bachelor of science degree.

Applicants are given low-interest loans to help them further their academic pursuits after their applications are processed by a local committee. Once a graduate gets a job, he or she begins to repay the loan to the association and that money, in turn, is put to use to help others obtain a college education.

The Salem Scholarship Association, founded in 1948, has managed, despite a limited budget, to serve as a "big brother" to a group of students who never will forget the helping hand the community extended at the right time.

Lots of husbands are men of few words when it comes to saying it with flowers.

Choice in Ohio

By RAYMOND MOLEY

"It's too bad Bob Taft isn't around," the man from Cincinnati said, "there wouldn't be any question about this fight this year."

This remark was made a few days ago when it became certain that a constitutional amendment would be on the ballot and would overshadow all personal candidacies in the campaign.

The eary rumblings of the union chiefs foreshadow the kind of battle waged by them against the re-election of Taft in 1950—a battle that they lost wih such decisiveness that they have been chary ever since about their power in Ohio.

In that campaign eight years ago they poured abuse, invective, money and manpower to repudiate Taft-Hartley and the man who had sponsored it in the Senate.

"Cost what it may, let it be what it will. we're going to bring about the defeat of Sen. Taft," was William Green's challenge before the election.

The language of the proposed amendment is this:

"No employer or labor organization shall deny or abridge the right to work by requiring membership or non membership in, or payment of money to, a labor organization as a condition of employment or continued employment in this state. All agreements in conflict with this Section are, to the extent of such conflict, unlawful and of no effect in this state."

PETITIONS with 354,210 signatures were required to put this proposal on the ballot but the sponsors came up with 465,180 an ample margin for all contingencies and also for a preliminary demonstration of the strength of sentiment in the state.

This proposal was at first rather doubtfully regarded, not only by the national unions but by some Republican candidates.

The union leaders regard Ohio as a stronghold of individual choice and are still smarting from the defeat of 1950 and a more recent and still more decisive defeat over a supplementary unemployment compensation law in 1956.

Republican candidates who must run this year reaize that the amendment will bring out a heavy labor Democratic vote. Republican Gov. William O'Neill has not yet made his position clear. Sen. Bricker has advised the choice of another year for the test.

In Washington the administration as well as the Republican National Committee are dead set against raising the issue anywhere and apparently any time. But the sponsors are determined to have it out.

Phil Hanna, Ohio AFL-CIO executive vice president, has called for contributions of "soul and money." Those favoring the amendment, he says. will "try to brainwash the people. . . . They will try to assassinate the dignity and character of labor and try to convince the people that you're all hoodlums and burglars. . . . Dig into your treasury. Contributions to this campaign can legally be made by unions."

OHIO IS NOT ALONE this year in staging a campaign on this subject. California, Washington, Colorado, Idaho, and Kansas are also making a decision.

It is going to be difficult to sustain by reference to the book of experience the dire predictions of "slave labor" and the "crushing of unions" in case any of these proposals are approved.

The experience of the 18 states which already have this sort of law shows unions enjoying just as great a prosperity and growth as in the other states. Wages are just as good; business is just as productive, and labor-management peace i just as prevalent.

On the score of principle there can be little legitimate argument. It should be impossible, just as it is in fact intolerable, that an employer and a union leader should sit down at a bargaining table ad foreclose the independet choice of a worker to work where and how his qualifications fit him for a job.

Of very great importance is the bearing that the union shop has in politics. If the money contributed by workers of all and no party affiliation can be spent for a candidate picked by union leaders, the denial of justice goes beyond economic affairs.

It is the denial to American citizens of their political freedom to support candidates of their choice. To permit this sort of injustice to be prevalent will result in a political as well as an economic monopoly inimical to free institutions.

Impressionable Bugaboo

By TRUMAN TWILL

This has been, I suppose, the vintage year for the All-American fauna known as the Irrepressible Bugaboo.

This is a creature that kills bugs with its bart hands. One of them visited our house last night.

The first time she rocketed out of the davenport and clapped her hands above her head everybody thought she had sat on a cat. That illusion was momentary.

As she settled back, she unclasped her hand and gloated over a mosquito she had crushed to death. She did all this without interrupting her flow of conversation.

"Mosquitoes," we murmured, to reassure her. "Very bad this year. All that water. Screens don't help much. Spray house every night at bedtime. Best we can do."

We were still explaining about the mosquitoes when the Irrepressible Bugaboo went into orbit again. This time she came down empty-handed. "I hate the things," she said, grimly.

We hated them, too. we said. But there was no way to be rid of them, we explained. They came right through the screens. . .

This time she shot halfway acros the room, hurdled a footstool and slapped her bugcatchers together while both feet were off the ground. This in itself was a good trick, because this IB has no sylph. But the best part of her trick was in her right hand—another dead 'un. She flicked it to the floor and ground it under her shoe.

All eyes now were darting about the room to spot the next bug that was going to die in this one sided assault. Gradually, every gaze was focused on one marauder who must have come in through the door with the guests—a kind of flying banana with bombertype wings. plainly a bug of substance.

The unspoken wish was that the Irrepressible Bugaboo now would show some real sportsmanship and smash this specimen with a deft touch.

We wanted her to make a contet of it. But she ignored the flying banana, even when it buzzed her Her game was mosquitoes. he was aware of her limitations. She worked without gloves.

She was all over the room. She must have had 50 tiny corpses stacked at her feet when the evening ended. She was as nonchalant about it as a monkey picking fleas, a resemblance suggested by her lack of embarrassmet.

Me, I am a Repressible Bugaboo. I would be embarrassed to go on the prowl away from home. Even at home, I can look through a silverfish or a cockroach to keep up appearances. As for mosquitoes, I would not dirty my hands with them, unless they attack me. They must make the first move.

But your Irrepressible Bugaboo kills on sight. Like this lady I was with on a picnic, who lunged across a picnic table to smash a mosquito on my bald head. She got the mosquito and me. Knocked me face first into the potato salad. When I came to, she was squashing ants on the back of my neck. We've been good friends in spite of it.

Top Priority

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The first task facing the new and younger team heading General Motors will be to handle the threat of an auto strike.

To the public this is far more important than any internal corporate changes that may follow the retirement of President Harlow H. Curice and Chairman Alber Bradley.

That's because the effects of an auto strike would spread far beyond the auto industry, itself so vital to the American economy. A shutdown could, at least temporarily, knock the pins from under the general industrial recovery befort it really gets started.

How incoming Chairman Frederic G. Donner and incoming President John F. Gordon deal with the United Auto Worktrs president, Walter Reuther, will be of prime importance to the industry of which GM is roughly half.

An auto strike is what business in general fears more than anything just now.

Example: Much of the new optimism in the steel industry is traced to expectations that the auto industry, its biggest customer, will be ordering heavily from now on. Steel counts on auto makers to be pushing output of the new models on which Detroit pins its hopes of recovering lost sales ground.

Many other industries—rubber, copper, glass, lead, zinc, radio set makers—and a host of auto industry suppliers would be hit badly by an auto strike.

A lengthy shutdown could quickly clear out the showrooms of the car dealers. It might for a time face motorists with a shorage of new cars instead of a surplus.

All hands have cause to hope there'll be no strike.

But the public has another reason to watch how the Donner-Gordon team handles the union negotiations.

The auto industry shares with the steel industry the popular conviction that their wage settlement set he pace. What Reuher ges may affect negotiations in other industries. It may affect the general price patern too.

And hat, in this tim of fear of further inflation, is of prime interest, not only to industry bu to consumers.

Once Over

Despite Senate vote of 88 to 1 for passage, the House voted 198 to 190 against Kennedy-Ive bill to protect the masses of workingmen against the routines of racketering leaders. Many congressmen "took a powder" and didn't even show up to be counted. How about a McClellan committee examination:

Q. Congresman, what is your name?

A. I decline to answer.

Q. On what grounds?

A. On the grounds I can't afford to lose constituents.

Q. Where do you reside?

A. May I consult counsel: (He consults.) I reside in Dodge Ave. at the corner of Play-It-Safe St.

Q. Would you tell the committe whether you are a man or a mouse?

A. I object to that question and claim the protection of the fifty-fifth amendment which says a man can be a succesful politician without being either.

Q. How long have you been a public servant?

A. Long enough to develop a high sense of self-protectivenes asnd appreciate the slogan, "It pays to be cagey in an election year."

Q. Have you followed the three-year scandalous revelations of racketering by a few at the expense of millions of honest union labor men?

A. I haven't missed a word.

Q. Haven't you often self-righteously expressed horror at the manner in which witnesses have clammed up when the chips were down, defied every effort to clean up racketering and blocked every move for reform?

A. Yes indeed, and in a very loud voice.

Q. How can you see yourself as much more helpful than the Hoffas and Becks in this fight?

A. I object to that question.

Q. On what grounds?

A. On the grounds I like Washington and don't wish to take any chance on a change of residence.

Q. Are you aware that you and 197 other U.S. congressmen have made the costly and long fight of the McClellan committee seem wasted, given the brushoff to an issue of vital importance to America and said "Shall we dance?" to Jimmy Hoffa?

A. Okay. Cite me for anything except political carelessness.

Chairman. The committee will recess in order to ventilate the room!

THE BUSINESS and Prfessional Women's Club held a picnic meeting Monday at Centennial Park, with 21 in attendance. Three guests were Mrs. Thomas Ridley of New Castle and Miss Barbara Hernstrom and Mrs. Robert Starbuck of Salem.

Mrs. Robert Entrikin was named general chairman of a benefit card party planned for Oct. 29 at the Smucker House. Proceeds will go to the School for Retarded Children.

Tentative plans were made for the Christmas party Dec. 4 at the Damascus Road home of Mrs. Entrikin.

Mrs. Starbuck, the new teacher for the Retarded Children's School, outlined the work for the coming year. She also reported that nine children will be enrolled in the school this year.

The committee for the picnic consisted of the new board of directors, Mrs. William Park, president; Miss Martha Park, vice president; Mrs. Elise Murdock, recording secretary; Miss Anna Mae Umbach, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Edward Lamoncha, treasurer.

The next board meeting is scheduled for Sept. 8. The next regular meeting is planned for Sept. 29 at the Smucker House.

-:-

MRS. LARRY HERMAN was hostess when the Monday Nighters Club met at her home on N. Ellsworth Ave.

Prizes in "500" went to Mrs. Robert Greathouse, Mrs. Catherine Finch, Mrs. David Fortney and Mrs. Albert Barth, who also received the special prize.

The third anniversary dinner party was planned for Sept. 8 in Youngstown. This will replace the regular meeting scheduled for that date.

Mrs. Robert Finch, Mrs. Greathouse and Mrs. Barth assisted the hostess when lunch was served.

-:-

ELECTION OF OFFICERS was held Sunday during the meeting of the Home Builders Class of the First Methodist Church.

Those chosen to serve for the coming year are: Presidents, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd T. Stanley; vice presidents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson; secretary-treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiggers; and Sunshine secretary, Mrs. John England.

Walter J. Hunston is the teacher of the class.

-:-

TWENTY MEMBERS of the Spencer Class of the First Presbyterian Church enjoyed a cover dish supper Tuesday evening at the church.

The meeting was opened by group singing led by Mrs. R. B. Long, and accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Stewart.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Earl Capel.

Mrs. Will King presented a talk on her trip through the Northeast. Slides of historic places in the Northeast and Florida were shown by Mrs. W. A. Shallenberg.

Committee for the evening consisted of Mrs. King, chairman, Mrs. Capel, Mrs Andrew Hodge and Mrs. Ralph Long.

The next meeting is Sept. 30.

-:

THE REGULAR MEETING of the Farr Class was held Tuesday evening at the First Christian Church with 13 members present.

Proceeds from a recent benefit were donated to the church building fund.

It was also decided to sponsor a Brownie Troop.

Quiz games were conducted by the president, Mrs. Arthur Beech. Mrs. William Shaffer gave a talk on her recent trip to California.

The next meeting will be Sept. 23 at the church.

Thinking It Over

By Robert Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Although man has his God-given capacity, he also has his human limitations. What is more, the Satanic competition for man's loyaly or interests is greater than we realize. The Devil's cunning in bidding for our souls is something we are inclined to overlook.

Temptation is always portrayed as colorful, satisfying, and easy. It is always offered on the installment plan. The ultimate cost is always hidden by a backdrop of artificial beauty or temporary relief from boredom or monotony. ony.

Man must learn to use his higher spiritual capacities. He must learn to choose between the total picture of sin, and the ultimate satisfaction of God's rewards. He must choose between the ends of the roads rather than the momenary vistas of today.

Constant Study Probes Problems of Aging

Just when a person should be considered "old" is hard to say. There is a variation between one person and another in physical and mental signs of aging and in the emotional outlook. All of us, for example, know "old people" who are fresh and young in their attitudes.

One correspondent writes that her mother is 60 years old and is rather youthful in her outlook and attitudes. However, the lady in question "looks" about 10 years older than her age in years and the daughter who feels this is the result of hardening of the arteries, asks if it is possible for any exercise to be of help.

THE SIGNS OF AGING are not reversable. An elderly person cannot expect to regain the physical and mental qualities of youth by any exercise, medicine, diet or other means.

It is encouraging that so much more work and study is being given to the problems of aging. I have before me a whole series of thick pamphlets dealing with studies of the aged and aging prepared for the use of the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare of the U.S. Congress.

A program was recently announced by the Joint Council to Improve the Health Car of the Aged which is designed to increase opportunities for older people to obtain voluntary health insura nc e coverage, to expand health care facilities tailored to the needs of the aged regardless of economic status, and to develop more community health service for the aged. These are only a few of th new activities in this field.

An aging person should recognize that the changes which are occurring need not mean the end of all zest for life. But an older person should realize that the bones are more brittle, break more easily. He should take particular care to avoid falls or similar accidents.

FURTHERMORE, the digestive system does not adjust too well to overloading or abuse. Food a n d drink should be more carefully selected and taken in smaller quan. tities.

Those of us who have not yet reached the time of life when the symptoms of old age are particularly obvious, but who have older relatives or friends, also have a responsibility to aid in making old age as comfortable and satisfactory as possible.

But we must not scold ourselves if the aged person appears unhappy or ill adjusted, since there are some things which the elderly person can only do for himslf or herself.

Nancy Cosma, Robert C. Lucas Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

Florida was the honeymoon destination of Nancy Luellen Cosma and Robert Charles Lucas following their marriage Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the Church of Our Saviour.

The Rev. T. G. S. Whitney performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar which was flanked by seven-branch candelab r a. the altar vases were filled with white gladolius and asters banked with palms. White satin bows marked the pews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amil Cosma of 622 Washington Ave.. the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Pauline Lucas of Carmichaels, Pa., and Mr. John Lucas of Detroit, Mich.

Dixie Lee Wilde presented a program of organ music preceding the ceremony. Soloist, Mrs. Edwin Miller, sang "Wherest Thou Goest," and "O, Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, Nancy chose a wedding gown of white imported silk fashioned with a sabrina neckline which was accented with appliqued alencon lace. The close-fitting sleeves ended in points at the wrist. The bodice was fitted over a full skirt, slipper-length in front, and sweeping back to a chapel train.

The bride's veil of finger-tip illusion was fastened to a pillbox hat covered with imported silk and trimmed with alencon lace, sequins and seed pearls.

The white Bible carried by the bride was covered with white carnations and stephanotis and was a gift from her former Girl Scout leader, Mrs. Joseph Greenwood.

Mrs. Robert Conroy of Salem, matron of honor and sister of the bride, wore a blue lace sheath dress designed with a scoop neckline and a blue taffeta harem overskirt. Her large picture hat was of white lace intertwined with blue ribbon ending in two streamers in back. Mrs. Conroy carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Also attending the bride was Miss Sylvia Brantingham of Winona. who wore a blue lace dress similar to that of Mrs. Conroy's. Miss Brantingham's headpiece was an open-work half-hat with a short veil matching her dress. Her colonial bouquet was also an arrangement of pink roses.

Mrs. Jack Lucas of Salem, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Marjorie Meier of Salem wore sheath dresses of champagne lace with matching hats and veils. Talisman roses composed their colonial bouquets.

The flower girl was Vicki Stoudt of Salem, who wore a poudre blue taffeta dress with puff sleeves, square neck with embroidered blue taffeta overskirt tied in back with a large bow. A wreath of blue flowers encircled her pony-tail hair style. Her basket contained pink roses and stephanotis.

Serving as best man for his brother was John Lucas of Salem; the ushers were David Linton of Salem, John Halley of Carmichaels, Pa., and Vince Markiewick of Cleveland, O.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cosma chose a sheath dress of white lace over beige taffeta with matching accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Lucas wore a green and yellow print on white with matching accessories. and a rose corsage.

Two hundred and twenty - five guests from Pensylvania, Michigan, South Dakota, Alliance, Columbiana, Cleveland, Canton, Leetonia and Youngstown, were greeted at the reception in the church. Mary Ann Howels was in charge of the guest book.

On the table, covered with a white linen cloth, white candles gleamed from silver holdrs beside a basket of pink roses, silver-coffee service and crystal punch bowl.

Mrs. Eleanor Swenningson, aunt of the bride, cut the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a minature bride and groom under an arbor of pale pink roses. Also serving the guests were Miss Shirley Brautigam, Miss Patricia Swenningson, Mrs. Richard Saltzman, Mrs. Clifford Todd and Mrs. Sam Lockhart.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Wilford Thomas, maternal grandmother; Mrs. Mary Cosma, paternal grandmother; and Mrs. John Sadler, maternal great-grandmother.

The bride graduated from Salem High School in 1955 and attended Central Technical Institute in Kansas City, Mo. She is employed as a secretary at C. B. Hunt & Sons, Inc.

Mr. Lucas graduated from Carmichaels High School. attended Fenn College and Salem Trade School. He is a draftsman at C. B. Hunt & Sons, Inc.

For her goingaway costume Mrs. Lucas chose a two-piece cotton dress of back and white tweed with matching accessories.

The couple will reside at 1693 E. State St. after returning from their Florida trip.

A reception at the Cosma home followed the rehearsal where the attedants were presented with gifts. The girls received gold chains with a cultured pearl pendant; and the men, initialed cuff links.

Boom In Bowling

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — The John Foster Dulles of the bowling world is Billy Welu, a 6-foot-4 Texan, who at 26 is one of the top figures in the nation's fastest growing sport.

"I traveled 150,000 miles last year," drawled Welu, a cheerful 225pounder.

The emergence of Welu is symbolic of what has been happening to the ancient sport of tenpins.

A tremendous postwar boom has brought bowling out of the alley shadows and the side streets into a new prestige. It now has a U.S. following of 20 million — the players range from factory workers to socialites — and is adding a million fans a year.

The fresh glamor surrounding the sport has resulted in the rise of a new class — the bowling pro. He ranks in every respect with the baseball, golf or tennis pro.

"Ten years ago there were only a few men in the entire country who earned a living by bowling," said Billy.

"Now bowling has a good future as a profession.

'A top bowler today can earn from $20,000 to $30,000 or more. Some even have earned $50,000 or better."

Welu competes in some 80 tournaments a year. He also tours the nation supervising bowling clinics.

Billy, a graduate psychologist who also has studied business administration, has bowled 13 perfect games of 300. He set an all-time four-year average of 214 in ABC competition, and consistently has been among the nation's top 10 bowlers.

Billy started at the bottom. He started bowling at 15, set pins himself, helped earn his way through college by working in a bowling alley.

"It's like any other sport — practice pays off," he said. "Anyone with good coordination should be able to become a 180 or 190 bowler in three years — if he is serious about it and gets in enough practice."

Welu is known as a rugged competitor. After his hand was crippled in a car door accident some time ago, he learned a new grip, went on to even higher scores

Billy,who bowls nearly 100 games a week, or about 5,000 a year, owns an interest in bowling centers in Los Angeles and his native Houston. He feels his experience as a pro has been an education in itslf.

"It is more than a good living," he said. "I feel it's a good stepping stone to a career in any business field."

Miss Eileen Bradley Becomes Bride of G. Richard Marzolf

The Wednesday evening wedding of Miss Eileen Faye Bradley and G. Richard Marzolf was solemnized in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in North Georgetown.

The Rev. M. Dean Shaffer officiated at the double ring ceremony which united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Bradley of North Georgetown and the son of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Marzolf of Normal, Ill.

"At Dawning," "If I Could Tell You," "Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs William Morgan of Kensington. She was accompanied by Miss Marsha Stratton.

Mr. Bradley escorted his daughter to the altar which was enhanced with palms, citobium, ferns and twin seven-branch candelabra. Altar vases of white gladioli, roses and pompons completed the chancel decorations. Paul Antram served as acolyte.

The bride was attired in a full-length gown of silk taffeta and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was designed with a scoop neckline, outlined with iridescent sequins; and long sleeves ending at points over her hands. The bouffant skirt, which extended into a chapel - length train, featured a front lace panel with scattered iridescent sequins.

A lace and pearl tiara held the bride's fingertip veil. Her cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white roses was centered with a white orchid. She wore a five-pointed star brooch belonging to her great-aunt.

Attendants for the bride were Miss Marilyn Bradley, sister of the bride, maid of honor, and Mrs. Walter Frank of Louisville, and Miss Nancy Nicholl of Marion, sorority sister of the bride, as bridesmaids.

They were identically gowned in turquoise lace over taffeta. The dresses were created with full skirts and scoop necklines and featured turquoise taffeta bows in the back.

The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of sweetheart roses and pink feathered carnations, while the bridesmaids arrangements were formed of Happiness roses and pink feathered carnations. They wore matching floral headpieces.

Harper Roehm of Normal, Ill.. was best man. William Bradley, brother of the bride, and John Marzolf, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Mrs. Bradley chose a coral silk dress with a corsage of orange delight roses and yellow feathered carnations, while Mrs. Marzolf wore a corsage of pink roses and feathered carnations with her blue lace dress. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Maude Bradley, wore a blue print dress and a corsage of yellow roses and white feathered carnations.

Two hundred guests from Normal, Ill., Marion, Uniontown, Salem, Beloit, Damascus, Marysville, Homeworth, Washington, Pa. and Louisville attended the reception in the church social room.

An aqua and white theme was carried out, with bouquets of gladioli decorating the room. The reception table was graced with twin candelabra and arrangements of pink sweetheart roses.

A nosegay arrangement of stephanotis, pinocchio roses and feathered carnations topped the four-tiered wedding cake which was encircled with adiantum.

Hostesses were Mrs. James Hoopes, Mrs. Vernon Long, Mrs. Harold Bradley, Mrs. Vincent Malloy, Mrs. Robert Bradley and Mrs. Arthur Charlton, aunts of the bride.

Roger Maloy, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ during the reception.

A 1954 graduate of Goshen Union High School, Mrs. Marzolf received her bachelor of science degree in education from Wittenberg College in June. She was a member of Kappa Delta Sorority. She will be employed as a second grade teacher in Saline, Mich.

Her husband is a 1957 graduate of Wittenberg College and is doing graduate work at the University of Michigan, Department of Zoology where he received a teaching fellowship. He is a member of Phi Mu Delta fraternity.

Saline, Mich., will be the couple's home after their undisclosed wedding trip. For traveing. Mrs. Marzolf wore a rose print silk dress with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at the rehearsal dinner Tuesday evening at the Elks Club in Alliance.

Mrs. G. Richard Marzolf

'Hire Now' Drive Helps to Boost Area Employment

Since the area "Hire Now" campaign was launched July 31, 138 persons have been called back to work and 40 new jobs have been filled, according to figures issued this week by the Salem Ohio State Employment Service in Salem.

The "Hire Now" campaign, cosponsored by the Salem Area Development Council and the Ohio State Employment Service, was proclaimed by Mayor Harold B. Smith, Mayor Erwood Calvin of Columbiana, Mayor Paul Marwin of East Palestine, Mayor John Todd of Lisbon and Mayor Ralph B. Kennedy of Leetonia.

Arthur Johnston, manager of the Ohio State Employment Service here, has commended the 200 - some employers for cooperating to stabilize employment in Salem and northern Columbiana County.

Statements from the heads of 10 major industries in Salem attest that the Salem area was not hurt as badly as many other parts of the country. And in the past month the overall picture here has improved.

In their efforts to re-establish stable employment in Salem, the local industrial firms keep a close eye on the national scene. Right now the blackest cloud, looming over the tool and die industries in particular, is the labor dispute in the automoive indusry.

The Ohio Employment Service with its staff of 12, and three interviewers, Mr. Johnston, Byron J. Griffith, assistant manager, and Wilbur Ferrall, constantly strives to place the proper person in the right job.

When one head of a local industry asked the employment service for a specific list of applicants, he sent back the comment to Mr. Johnston that this was the best caliber of skilled workers he's seen in many years.

Mr. Johnston says that the effective use of aptitude and profimen stage has become an important part of the worker selection and placement process. Hiring tes selected applicants can shorten the training periods and minimize turnover costs.

The Salem Employment Service is equipped to give the following tests: general aptitude test battery, occupational performance tests, typing, dictation and spelling tests, clerical and oral trade questions.

The 'Hire Now" campaign will end Sep. 15, but Mr. Johnston said the employment service will continue to get as many persons into gainful employment as possible.

Interment will be in Grandview Cemetery.

No calling hours will be observed.

Court

Ark. This was the original order for a 2½-year halt to integration at Central High.

The NNAACP petition also asks the court to set aside the action of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals in St Louis in withholding application of its ruling reversing Judge Lemley's order.

The Circuit Court stayed the reversal until the Supreme Court could act on an appeal of the ruling by the Little Rock School board. The appeal has not yet been filed.

The decision on the NAACP petition might provide a legal shortcut that would make an appeal and action on one unnecessary.

Some of the urgency and pressure is off the court in considering the Little Rock case. The city's school board has postponed the opening of the fall term from next Tuesday to Sept. 8.

But other forces from other directions were swirling around the segregation issue and the justices considering it.

Gambling

dian police shooed them back across the border in 1956.

Set up again in Terre Haute last September, they invited in Edgar M. Wyatt, 60. Terre Haute, because he had a $50 gambling stamp.

By the time of the raid the headquarters gang included Charles L. (Buck) Sumner, 70, a former Marion County (Indianapolis) sheriff; gambler Joey Jacobs, 63, Indianapolis; Philip Share, 54, and Irwin Gordon, 41, from the Las Vegas, Nev., casinos; and James Tamer, 46, Detroit, who was once convicted of bank robbery.

Crash

wrecking a garage, granary and shed on the Jerry Christian farm. The plane came to rest only 30 feet from the Christian house, about four blocks from the Metropolitan Stadium on Minneapolis' southern outskirts.

Impossible to Open

The plane landed on its left side, making it impossible to open the door there. But the crew directed passengers through the fuselage hole.

Among the hospitalized were the four crew members, Capt. James Wilkinson, Seattle, pilot; V. J. McGinnis, Seattle, copilot; A. R. Mielke, Minneapolis, engineer; and Marge Gallagher, Seattle, stewardess.

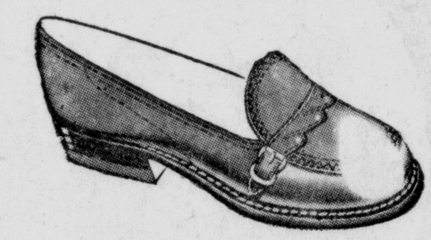

Most of the injured were taken to Northwestern Hospital here. Others were taken to Ancker Hospital in St. Paul and to Veterans Hospital near the field.

Despite the hazard and smoke, some of the passengers stopped to get their luggage before leaving the plane.

NEXT CENSUS WILL SHIFT HOUSE SEATS—California is expected to pick up an additional seven seats in the U.S. House of Representatives after the 1960 census but New York will hold its position as the largest state delegation. Fourteen states will lose seats and nine will gain (see Newsmap) as the nation's burgeoning population, especially in the Far West and Southwest causes a reapportionment of the House's 435 members, a number which must remain constant under the Constitution. Pennsylvania and New York will drop three seats each and Florida will pick up the same number. Alaska will have one representative. Current figures are on light background, future figures on dark. ## Ernest Lawrence, Nobel Prize Winner, Dies In California

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence, nuclear fission pioneer and Nobel Prize winner, died Wednesday night after surgery at Palo Alto Hospital. He was 57.

Dr. Lawrence had suffered ulcerative colitis for years, his doctor said.

The director of the University of California's radiation laboratory had joined other top-level scientists at Geneva in an international conference on scientific detection of nuclear explosions. But was forced by illness to fly home last month.

Dr. Lawrence invented the atom shattering cyclotron, an instrument for converting one element into another, in 1930. His first one cost $25.

He built one of the word's great scientific laboratories around his cyclotrons on the university's Berkeley campus. The instruments played a key role in developing the first nuclear bomb, producing the first self-exploding uranium 235.

From the laboratory, which Lawrence has directed since 1936, came numerous discoveries of the nature of matter, new substances to fight disease and promote agriculture, science and industry.

Dr. Lawrence won the Nobel Prize in physics in 1939 for his cyclotron discovery.

The physicist's cyclotrons have been the workhorses of scientists searching out the atom's secrets. With them, Dr. Edward McMillan, a coworker, produced the first neptunium, which automatically turns into plutonium, a successor to uranium 235 in A-bomb production.

Dr. Lawrence's laboratory also isolated tritium—triple weight hydrogen—a step in producing the first hydrogen bomb.

He was born in Canton, S. D., Aug. 8, 1901.

A boyhood interest in crystal set radio led him into physics. He built the University of South Dakota's first radio station and graduated from that school in 1922. He took a master's degree at the University of Minnesota and his doctorate at Yale.

Dr. Lawrence became an assistant professor of physics at Yale and moved in 1928 to the University of California where a year later he conceived the idea of the cyclotron.

His widow, Mary, and six children survive.

Aden, Now Under British Protection, Is Nasser Target

By RICHARD SPONG

ADEN, a British protectorate extending about 700 miles along the southern coast of the Arabian Peninsula—between Yemen and the Sultanate of Musca and Oman — appears to be a high-priority target in the drive for Arab unity of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt and of the United Arab Republic.

Nasser is reported using a favorite tactic, attacking British influence in Aden on Radio Cairo. The protectorate is being called "occupied Yemen"—meaning that the territory has been stolen from Yemen—and a "device of British imperialism."

The "occupied Yemen" approach goes back to a border dispute of long standing. Even the offices of a joint British-Yemeni commission to delimit the frontier were of little avail.

As the London Economist has reported, "Yemen's frontier with the Aden protectorate has never really been marked out on the ground."

The British charge that the Yemeni have had the backing of Egypt and, on occasion, of Saudi Arabia. When Iman Ahmed, the absolute ruler of Yemen, announced his state's affiliation with the United Arab Republic, March 2, his primary motive was believed to be to obtain assistance in ousting the British from Aden.

FOR THE BRITISH, Aden is vital not as an oil producer, like little Kuwait, but as a bunkering station and trans-shipment point. Also, the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company has a refinery there, established in 1954 after the British troubles in Iran. The port of Aden is the third busiest in the British Empire, ranking after London and Liverpool.

Aden in area is about the size of Nevada—and considerably more arid. An enclave within the protectorate is the British Crown Colony of Aden, including the port.

Like most of Araby, Aden was part of the old Ottoman Empire. For more than a century, well over 200 years ago, it was controlled by Yemen. The British occupied the territory in 1839—the first territorial accession under Queen Victoria.

The protectorate is really a federation of 18 Western and five Eastern Protectorate states, only indirectly administered by Britain through the governor of Aden Colony. Britain is responsible for the foreign relations of the protectorate.

CLOTHES ARE STOLEN

Russell Co. Head Sees Sales Pickup

COLUMBIANA — President Frank C. Russell estimated today that a new screen-storm door is likely to add eight to 10 million dollars to sales of the F. C. Russell Co. of Columbiana.

He told company directors that production will reach 20,000 doors a month by October and 50,000 monthly in eight months.

The door is made of a specially treated metal with zinc coating and baked enamel finish that protects against corrosion.

Russell predicted the product can add as much as a million dollars to company profits in the next 12 months.

State Fair Honors Former U.S. Presidents From Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—United States presidents from Ohio, who have been honored this year at the Ohio State Fair, will be sharing the spotlight today with Gov. C. William O'Neill.

The Governor's Day observance, traditionaly the highlight of the fair, will feature sheep shearing contests and the harness racing trot for three-year-olds for the governor's trophy. The racing session today will end the harness season at the fair.

The seventh day of the eight-dap exposition also will be President William Howard Taft Day, Ladies Day and Legislator's Day.

In Wednesday's harness racing feature, Harry's Dream posted the fastest mile covered this year at the track — 2:03 — to win the $20,050 Director of Agriculture State for 3-year-olds.

The pacer, owned by McKinley Kirk and Bob and Harry Vallery of Washington Court House and driven by Wendell Kirk, finished fifth in the preliminary heat won by Edgewood Averill in 2:05 1-5. In the finale, however, Harry's Dream turned on the speed.

The other preliminary was won by Lynda Spangler in 2:04 2-5.

A 3-year-old Jersey cow, owned by Richard Hallstrom of Waukesha, Wis., topped the livestock competition. Elmfield Wonderful Rush Ana was selected the top cow among 27 in the ring — the surviving entrants from 593 calves entered in the class three years ago — to win the National Jersey Jug Futurity.

Judy Cummings, 17, of Sidney, took the Junior Fair grand championship for the third straight year with her 5-year-old Holstein cow.

In the fat cattle auction the 1,030-pound grand champion Black Angus steer brought $1,236 for his owner, Donna Houke, 14, of Mowrysville (Highland County). The Black Angus Restaurant of Cleveland paid $1.20 a pound for the big champion. Last year's price for the top Back Angus steer was 70 cents a pound.

THE LIGHT IN THE FOREST—Sixteen-year-old Carol Lynley and 19-year-old James MacArthur find romance in Walt Disney's "The Light in the Forest" which will be shown at the State Theater here Friday through next Wednesday. MacArthur portrays a white boy who returns home after being raised by Indians. Also in the cast are Fess Parker, Wendell Corey and Joanne Dru.

Vernon, Power Lead Indians to 8-5 Win Over Orioles

McLish Hurls 14th Victory

Mossi Whiffs 2 In Relief Stint

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Washington Nationals appear to have as firm a grip on last place in the American League as the New York Yankees have on first. But there's a battle for sixth place shaping up this week.

The Cleveland Indians, who fly here from Baltimore today, hold sixth by a one-game margin over the Kansas City Athletics. After the three-game series opening here Friday night, the two clubs meet again in Cleveland Wednesday when the Tribe opens its last long home stand.

The Indians got only their fourth victory out of 12 games in the current road trip when they beat Baltimore 8-5 Wednesday night.

The victory went to Cal McLish, (14-6) his 11th in his last 12 decisions. But he gave up 11 of the Orioles' 12 hits and had the bases loaded when Don Mossi replaced him in the ninth with none out.

Bob Boyd singled home the final Baltimore run, then Mossi bore down to get the side out.

Billy Moran and Mickey Vernon led off the game with singles off Connie Johnson — the first of three hits for each of them. Rocky Colavito's double brought Moran home and Vernon scored on a ground out.

Baltimre tied it up in the second on three straight hits — a double sandwiched between two singles.

The 2-2 tie dissolved in the fourth in a four-run Cleveland scoring spree which started with a walk and Randy Jackson's long double. J. W. Porter singled Jackson home and Moran and Vernon again contributed singles. That routed Johnson and brought in Hoyt Wilhelm who was rapped for a single by Vic Power, scoring Moran.

Lou Sleater was on the hill for the Orioles when the Tribe boosted its lead to 8-2 in the sixth on doubles by Moran and Power, with a Vernon single sandwiched between.

Anderson to Defend Tennis Championship

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP) — Malcolm Anderson of Australia opens defense of his U.S. men's tennis championship Friday against Bob Perry of Los Angeles.

The skinny Queensland Cowboy, whose $5,000 private tour is the object of an official probe, will play the second featured match on the center court at the West Side Tennis Club.

The United States' three seeded players, Hamilton Richardson, Barry MacKay and Dick Savitt, all see action on the first day's card.

Richardson, former top-ranked American player who says his showing in this tournament may decide his Davis Cup plans, will face Tony Vincent of New York.

MacKay, of Dayton, Ohio, goes against James Shakespeare of Hollywood, Fla. Savitt, New York oil man who has quit big-time competition, oposes Lorne Main of Canada.

---

Guam — Pete Petros, 154, Guam outpointed Steve Tony 151, Philippines 10.

Miami Beach, Fla. — Jimmy Beecham, 158½, Miami, outpointed Bobby Boyd, 161, Chicago, 10.

Gail Harris Drives in Six Runs As Tigers, Boston Split Pair

By The Associated Press

Gail Harris. squeezed out of a job with the San Francisco Giants, has become Detroit's No. 2 gunner now that the Tigers have given him a home at first base.

In parts of three National League seasons, the 26-year-old lefty hitter had batted only .223, with 22 home runs and 68 runs batted in. Now, after 104 games in the American League, he's batting .285, leading the Tigers in homers (14) and triples (7) and is second only to Al Kaline in RBIs with 61—just five less than his total for 181 games with the Giants.

Wednesday he drove in six of nine Tiger runs in a day-night double-header split at Boston. He had a two-run homer and a two run double as they won the nightcap 7-2, and singled home both Detroit runs in a 3-2 afternoon defeat.

Kansas City ripped New York 11-7, reducing the pennant-bound Yankees' bulge to 11½ games over the White Sox, who won 2-1 at Washington. Cleveland defeated Baltimore 8-5.

The A's scored seven unearned runs in the first off Johnny Kucks (8-7), who gave up six hits after Bobby Richardson's two-out error. Tom Gorman (4-4) won it in relief for the A's, who tagged four pitchers for 18 hits. Yogi Berra hit his 20th homer—his 10th consecutive year of 20 or more—and Mickey Mantle socked his 37th for five Yankee runs.

Southpaw Billy Pierce won his fifth straight and 15th of the year with a four-hitter for the White Sox, giving up a seventh-inning home run to Norm Zauchin. Nellie Fox's bunt and doubles by Billy Goodman and Don Mueller bagged it in the fourth against Camilo Pascual (7-9).

The Indians had 15 hits, but Cal McLish needed ninth-inning relief for his 14th victory. Don Mossi came on with a run in, the bases loaded and none out. He gave up an RBI single to Bob Boyd, then fanned Gene Woodling and Bob Nieman and got Joe Ginsberg on a grounder. Connie Johnson (5-3) lost it.

Emily's Pride Sets Record in Hambletonian

DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP) — A filly who set a record and an old man rubbing a rabbit's foot are part of the 1958 Hambletonian story.

A pre-race favorite, speedy Emily's Pride broke Hoot Mon's 11-year-old Hambletonian record of 2:00 with a third heat time of 1:59 4-5 for the mile trot.

Driven by 64-year-old Flick Nipe and trained by 78-year-old Fred Egan, Emily's Pride turned on a burst of speed at the finish of the decisive heat to edge out Sandalwood by half a length in the race for 3-year-old trotters.

"This is th third Hambltonian I've won with a special rabbit's foot," said Egan, waving his lucky charm. 'I guess there must be something to it."

Egan won in 1940 and 1949, both times as a driver.

A second-heat stumble on a sulky wheel placed Emily's Pride in the No. 12 spot for the third trip around the DuQuoin State Fairground track, before a crowd of 22,500.

She won the first heat in 2:00 1-5 after a stretch battle with Mr. Saunders and Sharpshooter, the third of the pre-race favorites that included Emily's Pride and Sandalwood.

The second heat was won in 2:02 by Little Rocky, an outsider who took second place in the overall standings with a fourth place in the third heat. Little Rocky was last in the first heat.

Third and fourth in the overall results were Mr. Saunders and Sandalwood. Sharpshooter finished sixth behind McColby. From there it was Great Lullwater, Mix Hanover, Lumber Along, Gang Awa, Baron Colby, Record Mat, Spunky Hanover, and Florella Hanover.

Victory in the $106,719.24 classic was worth $62,750.92.

Lehwald, Hunter Win Tennis Campionships

Jim Lehwald defeated Bill Goodchild 6-3, 6-1 while Dave Hunter smashed John Strain 60, 6-0 to win the junior and intermediate division championships, respectively, in the Salem Youth Tennis Tournament which concluded at Centennial Park Wednesday afternoon.

The meet was sponsored by the Jaycees and Park Commission.

Lehwald and Hunter each received a can of tennis balls, a press and a racket cover while Goodchild and Strain received a can of tennis balls and a racket cover.

JCs Whip Westville In Class H Tourney

The Salem Jaycees moved into the semi-finals of the Class H Hot Stove Baseball Tournament when they clobbered a Westville club 18-2 Wednesday at Memorial Park.

The game was called after three and one-half innings because Salem was 10 runs ahead.

R. Bentley was the winning pitcher fanning eight and walking four. He also hit a homerun and double.

He allowed but three hits.

Scott hit a homer for the winners while Metz had two singles. Wyss was the losing pitcher. He walked nine and whiffed five.

Runzo relieved Wyss and fanned two while walking one.

The JCs will now play Salem Bloombergs Friday at 6 p.m. at Memorial north. Tonight Endres-Gross plays Homeworth at 6 at Memorial north.

Giants Edge Braves in 12

Pittsburgh Crushes St. Louis 14-1

By The Associated Press

The San Francisco Giants finally have squashed Milwaukee's hex, hitting the law of averages for a double jackpot behind the hitless relief pitching of Al Worthington.

The Giants had lost eight in a row to the Braves and Worthington had beaten them only twice in 15 decisions before the big righthander backed up his almost perfect three-inning job on the mound with a 12th-inning single that led to a 3-2 victory Wednesday night.

That clipped the Braves' National League lead to seven games over the Pittsburgh Pirates, who rapped 18 hits and beat St.Louis 14-1. Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 8-7 and the Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 5-2 with Ernie Banks pushing his major league leading home run total to 42.

Dick Stuart, Bob Skinner and Bob Porterfield homered in the Pirates' 67th victory — their best total since winning 7-1 in 1949. Porterfield was forced off the mound by a knee injury in the fourth ining — leaving the victory to reliever Vern Law (10-11). who pitched one-hit, shut-out ball. Skinner and Thomas, who doubled with the bases loaded in a five-run sixth, each drove in three runs for the Bucs. Rookie Nels Chittum (0-1) lost it.

Pete Whisenant's pinch-hit grandslam home run, his first in the majors, gave the Reds a 7-2 lead in the fifth inning and they wrapped it up on a bases-loaded walk by ex-mate Johnny Klippstein in the seventh. Joe Nuxhall (11-9) won it with relief help. Carl Erskine (4-4) lost it in relief.

The Cubs broke a 2-2 tie with Banks' two-run shot in the sixth off loser Curt Simmons (6-13), and rookie Bob Anderson gained his first major league victory with a four-hitter.

Stepanic's Tavern Wins 'AA' Playoffs; Drive-In, Salona In 'A' Title Match

Stepanic's Tavern scored one run in the bottom of the 13th inning to defeat Dairy Queen 3-2 and capture the Class AA playoff championship game Wednesday night at Kelly Field.

Salem Drive-In beat B&W Research 103 and Salona Suply whipped Lincoln Machine 94 in two Class A semi-final games. Drive In will now play Salona for the Class A playoff championship.

Once more Glenn Mercer emerged the winning pitcher for Stepanics. He limited Dairy Queen to five hits while fanning five and walking four.

Five errors proved fatal to Dairy Queen. It enabled the winners to advance that extra base on hits to the outfield.

Satch Altomare lost the game allowing six hits and striking out seven. He didn't walk a man in 13 innings. Altomare retired 16 men in a row at one stretch and 28 out of 32.

Dairy Queen got a pair in the second on Joe Tucker's triple, a walk to Ken Schoeni, Roger Stitle's sacrifice fly and Dick Wyss' squeeze bunt.

Stepanics had gotten one in the first on Ed Stefani's single, a sacrifice by Herb Reed and Ed Bozich's single.

The winners tied the score in the seventh on Jim Beard's single and two errors.

With two out in the 13th inning Stefani reached first on an error. He then scored on Herb Reed's single combined with an outfield bobble.

Mercer threw 141 pitches in the game and Altomare 133.

Bruce Feicht bested Paul Thys as Drive-In bombed B&W.

Doc Hiner, Dave Hiner and Feicht each had two hits for the winners while Jack Nigro had two for the losers.

Red Dotson beat Judge Guiler as Lincoln lost to Salona.

Dotson had three hits while Jack Jackson and Gary Painchaud had two each for the losers.

Drive - In will play Salona tonight at 6:30 p.m. at the north diamond at Centennial Park in the Class A championship playoff contest.

Thirty-two teams, which completes the field wanted, will compete in the second annual Salem Invitational Softball tournament which opens tonight at Kelly field at 7 p.m. n a game between Salem Scott's Candy and Youngstown Local 1331.

At 8 p.m., Canton Lattavo Bros. play Girard Hill - Hubbell while at 9 p.m. Midland, Pa. Local 1212 plays Toronto St. Joseph. Midland is the defending champ.

FRIDAY

7, Canton Dumont Sports vs New Brighton, Pa. AC
8, Beaver Falls, Pa. Zirat Electric vs Akron Red's Bar
9, Youngstown KC vs Niles Alberinis

Saturday

7, Salem Old Dutch Beer vs Akron Club Delissa
8, Findlay Oil Co. vs Youngstown Pushkar Tavern
9, Warren North End AC vs Reisler's Plasters.

Of the 32 teams entered, seven are from Pennsylvania headed by the Midland 1212 team which swept all honors last year on the pitching of George "Fats" Katich.

The Butler Servantis have replaced the Future AC of New Castle, Pa. who would have featured Joe Embroski and Clark Miller.

Five teams are from Youngstown, three from Akron and five from Canton are entered.

Salem entries are Scotts, Old Dutch Beer, Friends Church, Stepanic's Tavern and Herron Transfer.

Clevelanders Reacting to Tribe's 'Move'

CLEVELAND (AP)—The voice of the fan has been heard vigorously here since William R. Daley, board chairman of the Cleveland Indians, hinted last week that a move to another city was far from impossible.

Letters to editors of Cleveland newspapers range from sublime to bitter. Few writers are as impassioned as this woman, who declared:

". . . If you move the Indians . . you might as well move the stadium too. It will just be a monument. . . . Please keep our Indians here."

One fan, apparently irked by Daley's comments on the need for stronger attendance at the games, remarked politely:

"If the Indians think it's better scalping elsewhere. let them go."

The letters, for the most part, have turned up a wide assortment of gripes from fans and suggestions on improving the club and its drawing power.

". . . Let's give the home of the Irdians a carnival atmosphere and you'll have attendance," said one woman. "This is the day of sales competition. Sell! Sell!"

One discontented fan decared: "I would back the Indians if and when I bought a ticket I would not get a seat in back of a post or one - half mile from home plate."

Another fan urged better policing of the stadium. "Who wants to subject his wife to insults from some bum who came to the game for booze and boos, not for baseball?" he asked.

Many writers directed their criticism at Cleveland sports writers. "There is absolutely nothing wrong with baseball in the city of Ceveland as represented by today's team that can't be corrected by fair and constructive sports writing," said one.

Salem To Play Lisbon In Preview; Scrimmages Head Practice Drills

The 1958 Quaker football team will be one of 10 scholastic elevens that wil compete in the fourth annual gridiron preview to be held in East Liverpool Sept. 5.

The Salem aggregation will play the Lisbon Blue Devils in a fray slated to begin at 8:45 p.m.

The teams will play two eight-minute periods as will the other eight clubs.

Leetonia will play Newell, W. Va. in the first game of the night at 7 p.m. Salineville meets Beaver Local at 7:30 p.m. and Toronto plays Columbiana at 8 p.m.

The last game is between East Liverpool and Wellsville at 9:15 p.m.

Lisbon coach Bud Bucher plans two scrimmages before the Salem meet. His forces will mix with Chester, W. Va. today and Carrollton Saturday.

Salem scrimmaged Boardman yesterday. Each club took turns with the ball starting on their own 40-yard lines. Each saw how far they could move the ball in 10 plays.

The Quakers scored three times while Boardman didn't notch a tally. Salem touchdowns were by Ralph Ehrhart and Dave Shuster who each ran five yards and by Fred Phillis who scampered 35 yards.

The line is Dave Metcalf, Ned Chappell, Ken Garlock, Clyde Marks, Buddy Rottenborn, George Daily and Bill Hone.

The "red" and "blue" teams will scrimmage Poland at Reilly Stadium Saturday at 10 a.m.

Bruce said both the offensive and middle defensive lines looked good against Boardman but the squad was weak against end runs. Other weak spots were in passing and in blocking assignments by halfbacks.

Parilli, Starr Seek Starting Packer Berth

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Coach Ray McLean of the Green Bay Packers can choose between a home run hitter and a singles hitter for his quarterback this National Football League season.

For the long, or home run passes, he has Vito "Babe" Parilli. For the short, hit-'em-where they-are type of pass, he can call on Bart Starr.

Parilli, 29, and Starr, 24, divided the quarterback position last season with fair, if not consistent, results.

This year, McLean's first as a head coach, each is expected to mirror results of incessant practice in his specialty.

"Parilli's main problem has been a one track mind," McLean said today as the Packers got ready for a Labor Day exhibition game with the Philadelphia Eagles.

"He'd leave that huddle with one man in mind to throw to," McLean continued. "If that man was covered. Babe'd be lost. He'd have trouble picking out the pass defense and then run out of the pocket when he didn't have to and be thrown for a loss. Or, he'd throw anyhow, most of the time for an interception."

Starr, an Alabaman with two years of NFL experience, is expected to develop into one of the finest quarterbacks in the league.

Salads Feature Seasonal Fruits

Everybody loves fresh fruits, and using them in salads is an especially lovely way to get extra pleasure from them.

The wonderful thing about fruit salads is that there is no trick to making them beautiful and delicious. The color, texture and juicy goodness are all right there. Just cut up the fruit and there you are!

Such a delightful salad is the enticing Summer Salad Symphony, which relies for its success on its simple, tasteful ways.

You needn't wear yourself out preparing it, for what is it but four fruits — apple, bananas, berries and watermelon — cut in original and interesting ways, and set on salad greens.

Here are ways of making other delectable and attractive fruit salads.

Peach Banana Fan Salad

½ peach, salad greens, berry or cherry, 1 ripe banana.

Arrange peach half on greens on salad plate. Garnish with berry. Peel and cut banana lengthwise into 3 slices and place on salad plate. Spread slices open to resemble a fan. Yields one individual serving.

Banana Crescent Salad

Berries, 1 ripe banana, salad greens.

Place a mound of berries at back of salad plate. Arrange slices of banana in two half circles in front of berries. Gernish with crisp greens. Yields one individual serving.

Beef Filet Sandwich

For casual but hospitable entertaining over the weekend, prize-winning sandwiches are the ideal "main dish."

A former Kansas farm boy, Lloyd W. Rock, now of Louisville, Kentucky, has been proclaimed "Sandwich King of 1958" for his Pan Fried Filet of Beef Sandwich. He won first prize in a nationwide contest conducted by the National Restaurant Association and The Wheat Flour Institute.

Here is his recipe:

Pan Fried Filet of Beef Sandwich

Eight slices enriched sandwich bread, toasted, butter or margarine, ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1 clove garlic (minced), 4 4-ounce servings beef tenderloin, salt, pepper, ¾ cup sherry, ½ cup butter or margarine, ½ pound fresh mushrooms (sliced), 1-3 cup sherry, ¾ cup water.

Spread toast with butter or margarine. For each sandwich, cut 2 pieces toast into diagonal strips and place on platter. Melt the ¼ cup butter or margarine in skillet. Add garlic and cook for 2 or 3 minutes. Add tenderloin, season with salt and pepper, and brown well on both sies (about 10 minutes). Reduce heat and add ¾ cup sherry.

Cover and cook about 10 minutes, basting occasionally. Remove tenderloin and reserve pan drippings. In saucepan, melt ½ cup butter or margarine. Add mushrooms and cook until lightly browned. Then add the mushrooms, sherry and water to drippings in skillet. Cook about 5 minutes to allow flavors to blend. Arrange tenderloin on the toast and spoon hot sauce over sandwich.

Parsley Cabbage

Ingredients: 4 cups coarsely shredded green cabbage (firmly packed) 2 tablespoons instant dried onion, 1 cup boiling water, 1 cup cold water, ½ cup nonfat dry milk powder, 3 tablespoons flour, ¾ teaspoon salt, 1-16 teaspoon white pepper, ¼ cup finely chopped parsley (loosely packed).

Method: Turn cabbage, onion and boiling water into a 10-inch skillet; cover and boil gently until cabbage is partly tender — about 5 minutes. Drain cabbage; save liquid. Put cold water, nonfat dry milk powder, flour and salt in the top of a double boiler; beat gently with whisk or rotary beater just until there are no lumps.

Cook and stir constantly over simmering water until thickened; stir in ¼ cup of the cabbage liquid and the parsley. Cook and stir a few minutes longer. (Sauce should be on the thin side). Add cabbage and pepper; reheat. Makes 6 servings.

Glazed Ham

Ingredients: Fullycooked boneless half ham (about 5 pounds, whole cloves, ½ cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar.

Method: Cut off any brown surface from fat on outer surface of ham; insert cloves in entire ham, about 1 inch apart. Do not score ham. Heat according to wrapper directions. About 30 minutes before end of cooking time, mix together the sugar, flour and vinegar. Pat heavily over top of ham and lightly over sides.

Return to oven. Do not baste. If desired, glaze at bottom of pan may be skimmed of excess fat and used as a sauce. Add a little water to pan and stir over low heat to get up any of the cooled glaze that adheres, if you like.

Mushroom Sauce

Ingredients: 1 cup sliced fresh mushrooms, 1-3 cup butter or margarine, ¼ cup flour, 2 1-3 cups chicken broth, ½ cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, 1-16 teaspoon ground black pepper, ¼ teaspoon poultry seasoning, minced fresh parsley.

Method: Cook mushrooms slowly in butter; blend in flour. Gradualy stir in chicken broth and milk. Add salt, pepper and poultry seasoning. Cook and stir constantly until thickened. Turn into serving dish; sprinkle with parsley. Serve with Chicken Loaf. Makes 2½ cups.

NEW- 6 at Sunoco!

No 2 or 3 octane grades can possibly match Sunoco's 6 great Custom-Blends!

6 different prices– scaled down, grade by grade– to save you up to 4¢ a gallon!

Note buried tanks. From these, pump draws (a) premium quality Blue Sunoco '200', and (b) Sunoco Octane Concentrate (specially refined motor fuel). These are precisely blended by the pump to the exact blend number ordered. Approved by various governmental authorities!

Now you can enjoy the utmost in premium gasoline performance – without wasting your money on octane your car can't use.

For Sunoco's new Custom-Blending pump delivers the "in-between" octane grades never available before. (At "in-between" prices, too!)

Now, your Sunoco Dealer offers you twice, or even three times the octane selection you can get from anybody else . . . from premium quality Blue Sunoco '200' at "regular" price, to Blend '260', the highest octane gas sold anywhere! Each blend has all the finest performance qualities possible today.

First tankful, get the blend number specifically recommended for your particular make and model car. Test-drive it. Next time you fill up try dropping down to the next lower blend – at the next lower price!

So you go with Sunoco Custom-Blending – and so you save!

More! For "Regular" buyers, too!
You can get higher octane at "regular" price with Blend '200' . . . it's proved higher octane for most "regular" users. It's higher in quality . . . highest in value!

Angel Food Cake is Birthday Surprise

Birthdays are important in all homes, especially for the youngsters. To commemorate these happy occasions, a special birthday cake enriched with instant nonfat dry milk has been developed.

The light textured gold and white cake has a fluffy white frosting. A pink peppermint nog is a frothy beverage that makes an attractive accompaniment to serve with the birthday cake.

Sweet Sixteen Cake
(Makes one 9-inch cake

¾ cup (1 envelope instant nonfat dry milk powder, ½ cup sifted flour, 1 cup egg whites (about 8 medium-size eggs), ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 6 egg yolks, ½ teaspoon lemon extract.

Sift together instant nonfat dry milk powder and flour. Beat egg whites until foamy; sprinkle salt and cream of tartar over surface; continue beating until stiff, but not dry. Gradually beat in sugar until mixture is glossy. Divide into two parts, one slightly larger than the other. Fold ½ cup milk-flour mixture, then vanilla into larger part.

Beat egg yolks and lemon extract until thick and lemon colored. Fold into smaller part of egg white mixture; fold in remaining milk-flour mixture. Spoon portions of white and yellow mixtures alternately in ungreased angel cake pan to obtain marbled effect.

Bake in slow oven (325 deg. F.) for 60 minutes or until cake springs back when surface is touched lightly. Invert cake pan on funnel or table top until cake is cool (about 60 minutes). Loosen edges with sharp knife. Remove from pan. Frost with fluffy white frosting.

Skillet Chicken

Ingredients: 1 broiler - fryer (about 2½ pounds ready-to-cook weight), ¼ cup flour, 1¼ teaspoons salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon garlic sat, ¼ teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 2 tablespoons peanut oil, 8 scallions (green onions) cut in 1-inch lengths, 3 medium-sized tomatoes (each cut into quarters), extra salt, ½ teaspoon sugar, 2 large green peppers (seeded and each cut into 8 strips).

Method: Have chicken cut into 10 pieces; reserve giblets for stock for another dish. Wash and dry chicken. Mix flour, salt, pepper, garlic salt and paprika in a paper bag; add chicken; close bag tightly and shake chicken in flour mixture until well coated. Heat oils in 12-inch skilet; add chicken and brown on both sides over moderate heat.

Add scallions. Sprinkle tomatoes generously with extra salt and the sugar; add to skillet with green peppers. Cover tightly and simmer until chicken is cooked through — 15 to 20 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

In the curriculum of the early universities, the trivium meant the first three of the seven liberal arts: grammar, logic and rhetoric.

An Easy Cook-out For Dad

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Around Labor Day, Mom's the busiest person in town.

She's lengthening all of Susie's dresses — small fry have a way of sprouting up during the summer.

She's taking Johnny shopping for new shoes — and trying to get him to say which pair really fits.

She's searching out last year's pencil boxes and half-filled note books and persuading her back-to school set these important accessories are still usable.

In between she's getting Dad's winter suits and the family's heavy coats out of storage.

And of course warm - weather slip covers have to be taken off the living room furniture, laundered and put away.

That's just the moment she remembers she asked an old school chum and her family for supper on Labor Day.

If something like this happens to you, and you feel sunk, there's a way out. Encourage Dad to take over and produce the best cook-out of the season.

If Father is willing, we have a suggestion. Make up a batch (or more) of our saviry new tomato sauce and order some tender young chickens so he can barbecue the birds over the outdoor grill. We call this sauce new because it's our own concoction using one of our favorite canned products — stewed tomatoes.

Add corn on the cob to the menu and another pick up in your hand item — celery (or endive if you can get it) stuffed with a mixture of cream cheese and Roquefort. Watermelon will fill the dessert bill if you decide to rely on the chance of visiting friends bringing a box of cookies or candy.

New Tomato Sauce for Grilled Chicken

Ingredients:1 can (1 pound) of stewed tomatoes, 2 tablespoons of salad oil, 2 tablespoons dark brown sugar, 2 tablespoons vinegar (any variety), 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, tabasco sauce (to taste), ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon chili powder, ½ teaspoon chili con carne seasoning (if desired), ¼ teaspoon onion powder, ¼ teaspoon celery salt and 2 broiler-fryer chickens.

Method: Force tomatoes and their juice through a fine strainer with a wooden spoon so there is only a little residue and seeds to discard; or run until smooth in an electric blender. Add remaining ingredients, except chicken. Simmer sauce in a 1-quart saucepan, stirring often, for 20 minutes, or until reduced to about 1½ cups.

To use on outdoor grill or range broiler: Halve, quarter or disjoint chickens. Brush inside surfaces with tomato sauce; grill or broil until half done and browned, brushing with more sauce during cooking. Turn skin side up, and repeat process. Chicken is done when drumstick may be twisted out of thigh joint easily.

Note: This sauce, as is, makes a pleasant accompaniment to rice when it is being served with grilled or broiled chicken. More vinegar may be added for a spicier sauce.

---

Liquid carbon dioxide can be frozen and used like ice to keep things cold. It is called "dry ice" because it does not melt to a liquid but turns directly into a gas.

Fresh Peaches on Market Here; Tomatoes Are In Good Supply

"Peaches lead the list of locally produced fruit," according to Ed Watkins of Canfield, marketing information agent of the Agricutural Extension Service.

Golden Jubilee peaches are now decreasing in supply and Hale Haven will be the next variety in good suppy. Hale Havens are suitable for fresh use as well as canning and freezing. Ebertas will be available during the first half of September. Hale Havens too are a general purpose variety.

Sweet corn supplies are not as heavy as during the past two weeks. Housewives who still are going to can and freeze corn are urged to locate their supply as later plantings of corn were curtailed because of heavy rains.

Tomato season is now in full swing with plenty of good quality produce coming to market. Tomato supplies should be good from now until the first frost. The average date of the first killing frost in his section is usually around the middle of September.

Apples on the market are still more suitable for cooking rather than eating. For sauce or pies however, these early varieties are just about tops. Blueberries and elderberries also are seasonal choices for fruit pies. Blueberries are almost wholy cutivated varieties whie the elderberries are nature's own wild variety. Very few elderberries are grown as a cultivated crop.

Potatoes, squash, green and yellow beans, lettuce, cucumbers, celery, cabbage, tomatoes. sweet corn peppers, beets, and egg plant all rate good buy tags this week considering price, supply available and nutrients furnished.

Fruit choices this week would be peaches, plums, grapes, cantaloupe, and apples.

Main dish selections suggested are beef roasts. pork loins, shoulder cuts of pork, poutry fryers, leg of lamb, cheese and frozen fish.

Salad Special

Ingredients: 8 slices bread, 4 thin slices baked ham (warmed in a little butter on the grill or in skillet), 4 slices cheddar cheese, 2 to 4 tablespoons butter, 3 cups salad greens, 1 cup celery crescents, 2 unpeeled red apples (cut in thin small fan-shaped pieces), thin boiled dressing or French dressing.

Method: Make 4 sandwiches of the bread, ham and cheese; spread one side of sandwiches with half the butter; brown on hot griddle or in heavy skillet. Spread top side of sandwiches with remaining butter; turn and brown.

Meanwhile toss together the salad greens. celery and apple with dressing. Serve hot grilled sandwiches with the salad. Makes 4 servings.

Casserole

(Makes 4-6 servings)

One quarter pound American cheese (cubed), 2 cups medium thick white sauce, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 cups diced cooked potatoes, 1 cup diced tomato, 2 cups green lima beans, 2 tablespoons grated American cheese.

Melt cubed cheese in hot white sauce. Blend in Worcestershire sauce. In a greased 1½-quart baking dish place 1 cup potatoes, ½ cup tomato and 1 cup lima beans. Pour in 1 cup cheese sauce. Add remaining vegetables in a layer, then add remainder of cheese sauce. Top with grated cheese. Bake in preheated (350 degrees F.) oven until golden brown and thoroughly hot, about 45 minutes.

Chocolate Chiffon Tarts Tempting Treat

The latest in food fashions is the chocolate chiffon pie filling — newest wonder of the dessert world. The new chocolatt flavor comes at a perfect time for each entertaining when the weather is warm and no one feels like standing over a hot stove.

Prepared in a matter of minutes without cooking, it makes an excellent hot-weather dessert for the busy hostess.

Our recipe features the chocolate chiffon filling poured in tart shells which are arranged on a beautiful tray for added ease in serving. The tarts may be garnished with whipped cream and pecan halves to make a veritable bouquet of delectable treats!

Chocolate Chiffon Tarts

1 package chocolate chiffon pie filling mix, 1 cup boiling hot milk, ¼ cup sugar, 6 4-inch tart shells.

Homogenized or skim milk recommended.

Place pie filling mix in a small deep mixing bowl (about 1½ quart size). Add boiling hot milk. Mix well. Beat vigorously with rotary beater or at highest speed of electric mixer, until filling stands in peaks, about 3 to 6 minutes. Add sugar; beat 1 minute.

Pour into tart shells. Chill until set, about 2 hours. Serve plain or garnish with whipped cream and pecans.

Plum Kuchen

Ingredients: 2 cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup sugar, 6 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 eggs, ½ cup milk, 1 pound fresh purple plums. 1 cup firmly-packed light brown sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in the butter with a pastry blender until particles are fine. Beat eggs enough to mix yolks and whites; add milk and beat enough to blend; stir into flour mixture just until moistened. Turn into buttered heat-resistant glass baking dish (11¾ by 7½ by 1¾ inches), spreading evenly. Pit and halve plums and arrange over dough.

Mix brown sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg; sprinkle over top. Bake in moderate (75 degrees) oven 25 minutes. Cut in baking dish, remove with spatula and serve warm with butter, if desired.

Lead is used in electrical fuses because of is low melting point. A short circuit melts the lead, breaking the circuit before damage is done.

Hoover Will Apply Pension To Charities

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover said today he will use his new $25,000-a-year government pension for public service activities or contributions to charity.

He noted that this was the same as he always had done with compensation derived from government office.

He hailed President Eisenhower's approval of the congressional law providing the pension and other benefits for former presidents.

Louisana has nearly 5,000 miles of navigable waterways.

Earl is the oldest title of nobility in the British peerage.

Rhode Island had two seats of government, Newport and Providence, until 1901, when the latter became the sole seat.

Vegetable-Meat Casserole

By GAYNOR MADDOXO
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Delicious, easy to cook and serve, combination of fresh vegetables and meat help lower food costs without cutting down on nutrition.

Both these recipes we've found practical and really interesting.

Fresh Vegetabe and Meat Casserole (Yield: 6 servings)

Saute ¼ cup diced onion in 1 tablespoon shortening. Add one pound ground lean beef and brown. Stir in 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 teaspoon chili powder and ¼ cup water. Turn into 10x6x2-inch baking dish, over which place 1½ cups diced raw potatoes, 1½ cups raw fresh snap beans and 1½ cups uncooked corn, cut off the cob. Sprinkle each layer with salt to taste. Dot with 2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Cover and bake 50 minutes in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Remove cover and top with 6 slices ripe tomatoes, cut ½-inch thick. Brush with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle with salt and ground black pepper to taste. Replace cover and return to oven. Bake 30 minutes or until tomatoes are done.

Oven Fresh Vegetable and Beef Fricassee (Yield: 6-8 servings)

(This is a quick method of making beef and vegetable stew.)

Cut 4 minute cubed steaks (1½ pounds) into ½-inch strips. Roll beef in ¼ cup flour and sear in 2 tablspoons shortening or 4 ounces beef suet. Add 2 cups each, diced potatoes, sliced carrots, 1 cup each, sliced onion, diced celery, and hot water. Season with ¼ teaspoon each, crumbled thyme leaves ground black pepper, 1½ teaspoons salt and 2 tablespoons of fresh lemon juice. Cover. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour, stirring twice to mix thoroughly and evenly distribute the heat.

Meat Balls

(Makes 10 to 12 servings)

Two pounds ground round steak, 1 large onion (minced fine), 1 egg beaten, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon caraway seeds, 1 4-ounce bag potato chips.

Crush the potato chips very fine with a rolling pin. Mix meat, egg and seasoning. No salt is needed. Form into 48 small bite-sized balls and roll in the crushed chips. Press the chips well into the meat balls. Prepare in advance, refrigerate until sauce is cooked.

Sauce

One-half cup olive oil, 2 onions (chopped fine), 3 4-ounce cans of sliced mushrooms, 1 clove garlic (put through press), ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 pint sour cream, 2 teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon pepper.

Heat olive oil and add chopped onions and crushed garlic. When brown, add canned mushrooms an juice. Cover an cook slowly for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in Worcestershire sauce and sour cream. Add meat balls. Cover until thoroughly hot — about 5 minutes. Add salt and pepper to taste and serve at once.

Tomatoes In Cream

Ripe tomatoes baked in cream is a very special dish, according to food-loving California cooks.

Tomatoes in Cream (Makes 5-6 servings)

Three or 4 large, fresh tomatoes, salt, pepper, nutmeg. ½ cup heavy cream, ¼ cup sherry wine (or water with a few drops lemon juice), 1 tablespoon butter.

Wash and cut tomatoes into medium-thick slices. Arrange in a buttered shallow baking dish. Sprinkle generously with salt and pepper and lighty with nutmeg. Pour over the cream and wine (or water and lemon) and dot with butter. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) for about 20 minutes, or just until tomatoes are tender.

Here's a party mushroom ring to serve with cold meat:

Mushroom Beet Ring with Mint (Makes 10-12 servings)

Four 4-ounce cans sliced mushrooms, drained and blotted with paper towels, 3 tablespoons olive oil. dash salt, dash paprika, 4 tabespoons (heaping) flour, 2 cups thin cream (or evaporated milk), 6 egg yolks (beaten lightly), 6 egg whites (beaten until stiff), 2 cans tiny beets, lime juice, pure olive oil, fresh mint (chopped).

Saute mushrooms in olive oil with salt and paprika for 5 minutes. Add flour and stir well. Add cream. Stir and cook on low heat until smooth. Add beaten yolks of eggs. Remove from heat and stir until mixture begins to thicken (about 2 minutes). Add the stiffly beaten egg whies.

Turn into a well-oiled ring mold and bake in a very slow oven (325-350 degrees F.) until firm, about 35 to 40 minutes. Unmold and fill center of ring with tiny beets tossed with lime juice and olive oil and chopped fresh mint. Arrange large crisped potato chips around base of ring and serve together.

OUTWARD TO THE STARS (10)—Loneliness

By Don Oakley and Ralph Lane

(1) Few men so far have spent any considerable amount of time in what can be considered space. On Aug. 20, 1957, one man, Air Force Major David G. Simons rode a research balloon to a record altitude of 102,000 feet. At that distance 99 per cent of Earth's atmosphere was below him. He experienced every situation a man in a rocket satellite will have to face, except weightlessness and the initial acceleration—and high-speed re-entry.

(2) A camera inside the balloon capsule took a picture like this of Major Simons. Upon landing the major said that his most striking impression was the feeling of loneliness in an "unfriendly realm." How much more so it will be for the first pilot of an orbiting satellite.

(3) To see just how men will be able to live and function inside the confines of a spaceship, the Air Force has been simulating space voyages for almost four years at the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph AFB, Tex., and also at Wright Air Development Center in Dayton, Ohio. Above, at Dayton, a "ground crew" monitors a mock-up spaceship, observing the effects of a five-day isolation test on the "passengers" inside.

(4) In the cramped interior of the cabin, conditions are made to approximate those that will be met in actual space. Tests in one-man chambers have also been conducted.

The first space "man" could be a woman, for at least one member of the "weaker" sex has outperformed men in isolation tests at the Wright Center.

Achieving fame at Randolph Field school was Airman Donald G. Farrell, who successfully completed a seven-day "space flight" inside a capsule, breathing an entirely synthetic atmosphere. He was, to all intents and purposes, alone in space.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

LONDON

A special Soviet apparat, created sortly after the Russian revolution by Nicolai Lenin himself, today is directing the Communist infiltration of the free world's outer-space research laboratories, interstellar rocket engineering facilities and sky platform production installations.

This apparat is now devoted to sabotage. It is made up of disciplined Communists who first seep into strategic unions. Their task is to colonize laboratories and work even as sweepers' helpers if need be. But they are in a position to learn long in advance of any project what our scientists are planning.

It is my belief that there is little these rings do that is not under the surveillance of J. Edgar Hoover's superbly scientific special "desks."

These desks work in secret cooperation with British counter-intelligence — MI-5. And for cynics who do not believe that a fragmented Communist movement can place itself at the jugular vein—the power line—of a nation, I have this report.

MI-5 and British labor leaders have evidence to prove that the English Communists concentrated on the chemical industry here as far back as 1922 and 1923.

No national Communist labor apparat moves without direction from the old Comintern (Communist International).

THIS INFILTRATION could have come as direct orders from the Comintern or through the old Soviet labor outfit, the Profintern.

But the concentration was here, mind you, even during he years the Soviet's new armies were still fighting outlying czarist army units.

So important did the Lenin government believe infiltration was that it set up these units long before it had consolidated the revolution.

They concentrated on the British chemical industry because the Lenin strategists thought that the next war would be fought with poison gas and other chemicals.

This cocentration lasted until 1928. Suddenly the Communists lost interest in this union and the industry itself. They couldn't care less.

Their people were switched to the field of electricity. They saw future wars based on wired weapons. For four years they used every strategy and not a little terror and muscle. They worked their way into the electrical trades union.

THEN SUDDENLY they developed interest in crafts of science—for now they believed the war of the future would be one of electronic tubes.

And when in 1936 the Communists saw associations of scientific workers being organized, they infiltrated successfully.

For the word now was that the great British scientists were dabbling with a new form of power.

The British were secretly working on something called television — in color as well as in black and white.

Fact is that the British were actually transmitting as far back as '38 in London. But soon the thunder of Nazism bounced off the white cliffs of Dover — and the British switched to radar. They were the first. It saved Britain in the Battle of the Blitz.

The Communist infiltrators could not have known in advance of such radar experimentation. They went where they were told.

They were there when the British electronics industry developed the magnificent weapons and counter defenses of which we have still to hear. But once the Communists infiltrated, there is no doubt they knew what was happening day by day.

THERE WERE those in the scientific workers groups who were actual Communists and some who were just friends of Alan Nunn May. He is the chap who handed uranium samples to atomic spy rings planted in the U.S. and Britain by the Russians.

One of the scientific workers group visited May in prison. The associations themselves passed resolutions in defese of May whe he was arrested.

The Communist party has but 35,000 members in this land, yet powerful and relentless Communists today control the Electric Trades Union.

As outspoken avowed disciples of world Communism, Soviet-type, they are dedicated to the destruction of Western governments. Yet they control a union whose members are in the powerhouses which feed Britain's concentrated industries.

They control this union although MI-5 and the British anti-Communist labor leaders estimate that there are not more than 2,500 Communists in the 250,000-man Electrical Trades Union.

If we in America do not learn from all this, we all ought to take the next rocket to Venus.

Countians Participate In Ohio State Fair

LISBON — Columbiana County's 4-H Band and youths who won county demonstrations, health contests and style revues participated Tuesday in the Ohio State Fair at Columbus.

Their plan was to stay overnight and return today, but they could find no accommodations and returned last night, arriving in two chartered buses at 2 a.m.

Don Myers, associate county agent, said the group of about 65 youths and advisors planned to stay at the youth center which takes no reservations, operating on a first-come first-served basis.

Savory Macaroni Salad Easily Prepared

Summer fare substantial enough to satisfy hungry family or guests a savory macaroni salad with sliced broiled mushrooms, cold cuts, plenty of iced tea, rye bread and hot rolls.

Summer meals, especially this one, can be served on the breezeway, the patio or in an air conditioned playroom. Make the salad ahead to let the flavors merge.

To save last minute preparation and use less ice make your iced tea a few hours before you are ready to serve it. If it should cloud, just pour in a little boiling water. It will regain its sparkle.

For dessert serve seasonal fruits — cantaloupe filled with red, ripe strawberries or big, lucious cultivated blueberries— or a scoop of ice cream.

Shell and Mushroom Salad

4 ozs. shell macaroni, 1 cup mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon fennel seed, 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion, 6 oz. can sliced broiled mushrooms, 1 cup coarsely chopped celery, ½ cup grated carrot, 1-3 cup thinly sliced radishes.

Cook macaroni according to package directions and drain well. Combine mayonnaise, mustard, paprika, salt, fennel and onion and stir into hot macaroni. Cool at room temperature and chill for several hours. Drain mushrooms, reserving broth for future use.

Just befoe serving, add mushrooms, celery, carrot and radishes to chilled macaroni mixture. Toss lightly but well. Serve in crisp lettuce cups.

(a) That all existing right of way within the Village, which is necessary for the aforesaid improvement, shall be made available therefor.

(b) That the Municipality will acquire any additional right of way required for the construction of the aforesaid improvement.

(c) That arrangements have been or will be made with and agreements obtained from all public utility companies whose lines or structures will be affected by the said improvement and said companies have agreed to make any and all necessary plant removals or rearrangements in such a manner as to be clear of any construction called for by the plans of said improvement and said companies have agreed to make such necessary rearrangements immediately after notification by said Village or the Department of Highways.

(d) That it is hereby agreed that the Village shall at its own expense, make all rearrangements of water mains, service lines, fire hydrants, valve boxes, sanitary sewers or other municipally owned utilities and /or any appurtenances thereto whether inside or outside the corporate limits, as may be necessary to conform to the said improvement and said rearrangements shall be done at such time as requested by the Department of Highways Engineer.

(e) That the construction, reconstruction, and/or rearrangement of both publicly and privately owned utilities, referred to in sub-sections (b) and (c) above, shall be done in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the operation of the contractor constructing the improvement and all backfilling of trenches made necessary by such utility rearrangements shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of Section I-2.06 of the Ohio Department of Highways Construction and Material Specifications and shall be subject to approval by the State.

(f) That said Village hereby agrees that the said Department of Highways of the State of Ohio, shall be and is hereby saved harmless from any and all damages or claims therof arising from or growing out of the certification or obligations made or agreed to in Sections (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) hereinabove.

SECTION V (SAVING THE STATE HARMLESS)

That it is hereby agreed that the said Department of Highways of the State of Ohio shall be and is hereby saved harmless from any or all damages or claims, to private or public property, arising from or growing out of the construction of said improvement.

SECTION VI (Emergency Clause)

This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure by reason of the need for expediting construction of projects to promote highway safety, and provided it receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to Council, it shall take effect and be in force immediately upon it passage and approval by the Mayor; otherwise it shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Vote on suspension of the rule requiring an ordinance to be fully and distinctly read on three different days: (Requires a yea vote by three-fourths of all elected members).

PASSED Aug. 20, 1958.

State St., Hazel St. & Columbia St.
ROUTE NO. S. R. 344
ORDINANCE NO. 976

An emergency ordinance enacted by the Village of Leetonia, Columbiana County, Ohio, in the matter of the hereinafter described improvement, under the superivision of the Director of Highways.

WHEREAS, the Director of Highways is considering improving a portion of the public highway which is described as follows:

(Location and general nature of work)

1. Bridge No. COL-344-0398 on State Street in Leetonia. Construct new bridge to replace existing bridge at new location outside the corporate limits of the Village of Leetonia, said location and elevations to be as recommended by U. S. Army Engineers in a Design Memorandum entitled "Flood Protection, Cherry Valley Run, Leetonia, Ohio," dated November, 1957.
2. Bridge No. COL-344-0458 on Hazel Street in Leetonia. Raise existing superstructure or construct new superstructure on existing abutments, underside of superstructure to be at elevation above the design flood recommended by the U. S. Army Engineers in the Design Memorandum mentioned above.
3. Bridge No. COL-344-0473 on Columbia Street in the Village of Leetonia. Construct new superstructure on existing abutments, underside of superstructure to be at an elevation above the design flood recommended by the U. S. Army Engineers in the Design Memorandum mentioned above.

During the construction of this improvement, the streets and highway will be closed to traffic for a sufficient distance each side of each bridge to provide room for the contractor's operations, and

That detours over Village Streets and County Roads shall be provided at no cost to the State, other than signing.

NOW THEREFORE, Be it ordained by the Council of the Village of Leetonia, Ohio:

SECTION I (Consent)

That it is declared to be in the public interest that the consent of said Village be and such consent is hereby given to the Director of Highways to construct the above described improvement in accordance with plans, specifications and estimates as prepared by said Director.

SECTION II (Authority to Sign)

That the Mayor of said Village is hereby authorized to enter into maintenance and parking agreements and special contractual obligations.

SECTION III (Maintenance)

That it is hereby agreed that said Village will, after completion of the aforementioned project, maintain the improvement herein contemplated in accordance with the provisions of the statutes relating thereto and will make ample financial and other provisions for such maintenance, and maintain the right of way and keep it free of obstructions in a manner satisfactory to the State of Ohio, and to prohibit parking within the limits of this project providing the signing and enforcement necessary thereto.

SECTION IV (CERTIFICATION OF AVAILABILITY OF RIGHT OF WAY, UTILITY REARRANGEMENT AND SAVING THE STATE OF OHIO HARMLESS OF DAMAGES.)

(a) That all existing right of way within the Village, which is necessary for the aforesaid improvement, shall be made available therefor.

(b) That the Municipality will acquire any additional right of way required for the construction of the aforesaid improvement.

(c) That arrangements have been or will be made with and agreements obtained from all public utility companies whose lines or structures will be affected by the said improvement and said companies have agreed to make any and all necessary plant removals or rearrangements in such a manner as to be clear of any construction called for by the plans of said improvement and said companies have agreed to make such necessary rearrangements immediately after notification by said Village or the Department of Highways.

(d) That it is hereby agreed that the Village shall at its own expense, make all rearrangements of water mains, service lines, fire hydrants, valve boxes, sanitary sewers or other municipally owned utilities and /or any appurtenances thereto whether inside or outside the corporate limits, as may be necessary to conform to the said improvement and said rearrangements shall be done at such time as requested by the Department of Highways Engineer.

(e) That the construction, reconstruction, and/or rearrangement of both publicly and privately owned utilities, referred to in sub-sections (b) and (c) above, shall be done in such a manner as not to interfere unduly with the operation of the contractor constructing the improvement and all backfilling of trenches made necessary by such utility rearrangements shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of Section I-2.06 of the Ohio Department of Highways Construction and Material Specifications and shall be subject to approval by the State.

(f) That said Village hereby agrees that the said Department of Highways of the State of Ohio, shall be and is hereby saved harmless from any and all damages or claims therof arising from or growing out of the certification or obligations made or agreed to in Sections (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) hereinabove.

SECTION V (SAVING THE STATE HARMLESS)

That it is hereby agreed that the said Department of Highways of the State of Ohio shall be and is hereby saved harmless from any or all damages or claims, to private or public property, arising from or growing out of the construction of said improvement.

SECTION VI (Emergency Clause)

This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure by reason of the need for expediting construction of projects to promote highway safety, and provided it receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to Council, it shall take effect and be in force immediately upon it passage and approval by the Mayor; otherwise it shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Vote on suspension of the rule requiring an ordinance to be fully and distinctly read on three different days: (Requires a yea vote by three-fourths of all elected members).

PASSED Aug. 20, 1958.

ATTEST: M. P. BURICK, Clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 977

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE MAYOR AND CLERK TO EXECUTE ASSURANCES TO THE SECRETARY OF THE ARMY IN CONNECTION WITH FLOOD PROTECTION IN THE VILLAGE.

Whereas, this village has negotiated for some period of time with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers for federal aid in the matter of flood protection within the village; and

Whereas, the village has now definitely received assurances from the State of Ohio Department of Highways and the Board of Commissioners of Columbiana County, Ohio, that they will participate financially in the project proposed by the said Corps of Engineers so far as the local share of costs is concerned; and

Whereas, the village desires to reaffirm and finally commit itself to the proposed project on Cherry Valley Run at Leetonia:

Now, therefore, be it ordained, by the council of the Village of Leetonia, Ohio:

Section 1. That the Mayor and Clerk be, and they hereby are, authorized and directed to execute, in the name of the Village of Leetonia, certain Assurances to the Secretary of the Army, as specified in their Flood Protection Project submitted by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in effect at the earliest date allowed by law.

Passed at a regular meeting of Council on August 20, 1958.

RALPH B. KENNEDY, Mayor.
ATTEST: M. P. BURICK, Village Clerk.

NOTICE OF ELECTION ON ISSUE OF BONDS

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Council of the Village of Leetonia, Columbiana County, Ohio, passed on the 2nd day of August, 1958 there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Village of Leetonia at the General Election to be held in the Village of Leetonia, Columbiana County, Ohio, at the regular places of voting therein, on Tuesday, the 4th day of November, 1958, the question of issuing bonds of said Village of Leetonia in the amounts of Sixty Thousand and NO/100 Dollars ($60,000.00) for the purpose of erecting a one-story concrete block fire station, of fireproof construction, or in the alternate, purchasing a suitable existing building, if available, and of purchase of a fire truck equipped with a 750 GPM pump and a service truck equipped with aerial ladder and other necessary equipment as provided by law.

The maximum number of years during which such bonds are to run is ten (10) years.

The estimated average additional tax rate amounts to twenty-four cents ($0.24) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, which is two and four-tenths (2.4) mills for each one dollar of valuation, outside of the limitation imposed by Article XII, Section 2 of the Constitution, as certified by the County Auditor.

The Polls for said Election will open at 6:30 o'clock A.M. and remain open until 6:30 o'clock P.M. Eastern Standard Time of said day.

By Order of the Board of Elections of Columbiana County, Ohio
C. L. STACEY, Chairman
FRANK R. O'HANLON Clerk

Dated August 2, 1958.

Questions and Answers

Q—Why is the third waltz of Chopin's Opus 34, sometimes called the "Cat" Waltz?

A — According to legend, Chopin's cat ran up and down the key board and gave him the idea for the appoggiatura passage in the fourth section.

Q — What is the average surface temperature of the oceans at the Equator?

A — About 80 degrees.
